By the Board

By William Marutani, National JACL Legal Counsel

SCRIPTURE-SPEWING LAWYER — I once read of a so-called "smart lawyer" who, in his closing speeches to the jury, would freely (and quite effectively) intersperse his speeches with phrases rendered in biblical cadence thereby stamping his ringing declarations with the time-tested and obvious wisdom of the Bible. Until, that is, one day an alert listener checked some of this lawyer's copious quotations: not one of them was in the Bible! The lawyer simply made them artfully up as he went along.

This device is often resorted to by those who pretend to call upon God's word to support their positions.

NOT ONLY THE LAWYER — For example, during the racial disturbance in Little Rock when certain elements sought to block the integration of the high school, there appeared a news photo of a youth righteously carrying a sign which piously proclaimed: "God created the races separate!"

Then just the other day the AP wire service carried an item that 26 members of the "Ministers of Conservative Association" in the San Francisco area justified support of Proposition 14 in California because "Individual property rights are set forth in the Ten Commandments."

Now when Moses trekked up Mt. Sinai and brought down those tablets, there wasn't anything inscribed there to support this contention of these "ministers". Take another look at Exodus, chapter 20. While Moses' people were told not to do nine things (the affirmative direction was to honor one's parents) nowhere did God direct that property rights were supreme to human rights.

AND THE DEVIL, TOO — Even Jesus was faced by Satan nimbly quoting from the scriptures in an effort to tempt Christ in the wilderness: see Luke 4:9. And in Jesus' day there were "smart lawyers" too and one of them sought to entrap Jesus by a loaded question. Matthew records the account as follows:

"Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, Master, which is the great commandment in the law? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. ON THESE TWO COMMANDMENTS HANG ALL THE LAW AND THE PROPHETS." Matthew 22: 35-40 (cap emphasis added)

No complex mumbo-jumbo. Jesus boiled it all down to these two simple rules.—love God and love thy neighbor,—and He underlined the simplicity and importance of these two tenants by pointing out that "On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets." That's it.

THE GLARING "OVERSIGHT" — And yet those who seek to camouflage their sinister purposes behind the cloak of sanctimonious pronouncements conveniently and glaringly overlook these two central tenants: love God, love thy neighbor. Instead they mouth some cliché or vaguely point to some portion of the scriptures (taken out of context) which purportedly support their unkindness or cruelty to fellow man, and then they resume their pious attitude.

Yes, there are separate races; and God said love thy neighbor. Yes, our society recognizes property rights—but let's not have this mumbo-jumbo about the Ten Commandments vis-a-vis Proposition 14; God said love thy neighbor.

In closing let me hasten to confess that I am no evangelist and I fall woefully short of the goals set by that great Teacher. But when people of ill-will seek to wear the mask of righteousness and piety, they ought to be exposed and recognized for what they are. So when someone tries "to sell you a bill of goods" wrapped in holy-sounding words, you just weigh it on the simple scale set down by Jesus: love God, love thy neighbor.

IMAGE OF CALIFORNIA BADLY TARNISHED BY PROP. 14 APPROVAL

By JERRY ENOMOTO, Chairman
JACL State Committee Against Proposition 14

As I write this final column as State Chairman of our fight against Prop. 14, the TV screen transmits the sad news that we have lost. I believe that I speak both for myself and JACL in stating, without equivocation, that the image of California has been badly tarnished. I sincerely feel that the principle of justice and fair play for all Americans has been repudiated. If some see this as "sour grapes", let it be so interpreted.

Unfortunately, this is not a "game" that we can now dismiss with the observation that we fought a good fight but lost. On this issue there is no shaking hands and forgetting. On this issue we must serve notice upon the bigots that this temporary "victory" will be a hollow one, and that the assurance of equality and justice in housing will be realized. If not by the defeat of segregation measures like Prop. 14, then in other ways, but it will be realized.

The NC-WNDC in session on Sunday, Nov. 1, unanimously resolved to invite our two fellow district councils in California to join us in initiating steps to test the con-

KATS ARIMOTO OF SAN FERNANDO TO HEAD PSWDC

Election Held at Quarterly Session in Santa Barbara

SANTA BARBARA—Katsumi Arimoto, active San Fernando Valley JACLer, was elected chairman of the Pacific Southwest District Council at the quarterly session hosted by Santa Barbara JACL Nov. 8.

He succeeded acting chairman Ronald Shiozaki, Gardena Valley, who filled the vacancy created by the election of Mas Hironaka of San Diego as secretary to the National JACL Board at the Detroit convention last summer. Hironaka served as DC chairman for three years.

Arimoto will be assisted by Tetsu Iwasaki of Pasadena, vice-chairman; Hitoshi Shimizu of Venice-Culver, re-elected treasurer; and Richard Hikida of Long Beach-Harbor, secretary.

Elected to two-year terms on the board were: Wilbur Sato, Gardena, legis-legal; Henry Kanegae, Orange County (memb.); George Ohashi, Santa Barbara (recog.); Fr. Clement, DTLA (chaplain); Shimizu, Hikida, Iwasaki. Holdover members with a year to go are: Alan Kumamoto, Hollywood (PC rep.); Clarence Nishizu, Orange County (youth); Mrs. Maho Yoshizaki, East L.A. (1000 Club); A. Hira Ohno, West L.A. (prof. & act.); Mas Shimatsu, Southwest L.A. (History Project); Mark Kiguchi, Southwest L.A. (legal counsel); Arimoto.

Arimoto, by profession, has been an elementary district counselor in the Valley West district of the L.A. City School System for the past four years. He graduated from the Univ. of Illinois and was conferred his M.A. in guidance from San Fernando State College. He hails from Walnut Grove, Calif.

The new board was installed by Hironaka during the luncheon at Santa Barbara Inn.

National Director Mas Satow, as main speaker, told of the need of JACL as an organization with a product to sell—"Japanese Americans" and to maintain the good image of that product. Tom Hirashima was emcee.

The Rev. Roy Takawa gave the invocation and Fr. Clement the benediction. Over 80 delegates attended.

Quota Accepted

In view of the 1964 membership performances, some further "give and take" of individual chapter quotas will be necessary, according to Mike Shimizu, DC budget-finance chairman, however the $27,000 district quota was accepted.

Some of the chapters had expressed approval of their individual chapter quotas at the August quarterly session at Burbank.

The PSWDC hit its all-time high of 4,131 active members as of the end of October. Five chapters—Arizona, Hollywood, Pasadena, San Fernando Valley and Wilshire-Uptown—also topped all previous membership records.

Wilbur Sato, DC chairman of the campaign against Prop. 14, in a post-mortem on the campaign regarding the San Fernando Valley JACL efforts as a "classic" and also suggested a full-time coordinator should be hired if an attempt of a similar nature is to be tried.

Akira Ohno, DC program & activities chairman, reported the 1965 Nisei Relays, sponsored by the PSWDC, would be held on June 6 at Rancho Cienega. He hoped that the date does not conflict with the San Francisco JACL Olympic, since it was the Nisei Relays hope that a Southland team might compete in the Northern California event.

1965 DC Dates

Dates for the next DC meetings were confirmed. Pasadena will host the first quarterly on Feb. 14. Long Beach-Harbor will host the DC convention on May 1-2.

Delegates also discussed raising national dues to $10 per member (including the spouse, if married), district fund raising, and national personnel problems.

More chapter liaison in 1965 was offered by Milton Edwards, speaking for Capitol Life Insurance Co., underwriters of the PSWDC JACL major medical health plan.

The DC approved a $100 annual allowance for the district chairman.

Mrs. Florance Morimoto was announced as the new regional office secretary.

PSW chapter clinic hailed despite shortened schedule

SANTA BARBARA — Under the simplified format, the PSWDC chapter clinic hosted by Santa Barbara JACL Nov. 8 was regarded as a success by the 80 adults and 20 youth members present.

Three main topics were sched-

Election Briefs

Incumbent Alfred Song (D) of Monterey Park, first Oriental American elected to the California State Assembly two years ago, retained his seat for the 45th District. He polled 43,773 votes over Ray Meyers (R) with 27,433.

Rep. Cecil R. King (D) of Inglewood, co-author with Sen. Kuchel of the 1962 law which established evacuation claim awards as tax-free, defeated Robert Muncaster (R) of San Pedro for the 17th Congressional District, 93,403 to 44,666. Muncaster was the lone John Birch member seeking federal office from Southern California.

In the Ventura County Fifth District race for supervisor, William D. Soo Hoo, Chinese American, of Oxnard was defeated by Thomas J. Laubacher: 12,798-11,045.

Maryland voters extended a public accommodations law to require equal service for Negroes in motels, hotels and restaurants throughout the state. Previously, it applied only to the city of Baltimore and half of the state's 23 counties.

Negroes scored a breakthrough in state legislatures, three representatives and one senator being elected in Oklahoma, the second state senator in Georgia, nine representatives and two senators in Michigan, seven assemblymen and three senators in New York. Negro Judge Darwin Telesford was elected to the New York state supreme court.

As the Negro holding the highest state elective office in Massachusetts, Attorney General Edward W. Brooke is the hottest Republican political prospect in the state as he was re-elected this past week with massive votes. Many observers feel him a leading candidate for either governor or U.S. senator in 1966.

Brooke established his fame as an astute prober of public office corruption in 1961 as chairman of the Boston Finance Commission. In 1962, his victory as attorney general was the lone Republican triumph in an otherwise Democratic statewide sweep.

Yonehiro wins Placer County district judgeship

AUBURN — George Yonehiro of Applegate defeated Mrs. Marian Bates of Colfax in the Nov. 3 elections for judgeship of the Colfax-Alta-Dutch Flat district court. The vote was 1,282 to 938.

The Newcastle-born Nisei almost doubled the number of votes he received in the June primaries when he led a field of four aspirants with 677 votes. As he did not gain a majority or more than 50 pct. of the votes cast, a runoff election was necessary.

Earlier this year, the Nisei grower was one of several county residents who passed an examination which made him eligible to run for the district judicial post. Yonehiro is the first Nisei in the state to gain a judgeship initially through an election. The four other Nisei jurists presiding in the larger municipal and county superior courts were originally appointed to office by the governor.

Koshare Indian chief

ROCKY FORD, Colo.—Gary Hirokawa, senior at Rocky Ford High School, was elected head chief of the famed Koshare Indians of La Junta recently. The Samsel had been a member since the 7th grade. The group makes long trips during the summer putting on shows.

To be head chief, one must be a high school senior, do superior work in Scouting and prove himself to be a leader. Hirokawa is now student council president and a member of the National Honor Society at school.

Chicago JACL and Jr. JACL boards meet to better define their inter-relationship

(Special to the Pacific Citizen)

CHICAGO — The Chicago JACL and Jr. JACL boards met jointly for the first time Oct. 4 to better define their inter-relationships, according to the Jr. Jumble, monthly newsletter of the Chicago Jr. JACL.

Although the purposes of both groups are based on JACL principles, it was agreed that the Jr. JACL would be autonomous with reference to program and finances. Cooperation between the JACL and Jr. JACL would be encouraged. However, because of the age and interest differences, such cooperation will probably be limited to Juniors helping at senior functions. Inter-group participations will be subject to joint board approval.

NATIONAL JACL MEMBERSHIP IN ALL-TIME HIGH

18,559 Active as of Nov. 1; 24 Chapters Also Set New Record

SAN FRANCISCO—National JACL membership topped the 18,000 mark for an all-time postwar high total this year, it was announced by National Director Mas Satow this past week.

The actual count was 18,559 as of Nov. 1, Satow revealed. It surpassed the previous all-time high of 17,378 set a year ago. It matches the estimated 18,000 count on the eve of Evacuation in 1942.

As new membership cards for 1965 have been distributed to all 88 chapters, the figures for Oct. 31 will most likely be the final count for this year.

Credit for this record was being shared by the 24 chapters which attained their respective all-time highs and the chapters which surpassed their 1963 membership.

Set All-time Mark

The 24 chapters with all-time highs are in the following district councils:

- PNWDC—Mid Columbia, Portland, Puycallup Valley.
- NC-WNDC—Alameda, Contra Costa, Fremont, Gilroy, Oakland, Salinas Valley, San Jose, Sequoia, Watsonville, Monterey Peninsula.
- PSWDC — Arizona, Hollywood, Ventura County, Pasadena, San Fernando Valley.
- IDC—Mt. Olympus.
- MPDC—Omaha.
- EDC—Philadelphia, Washington, D.C.

Other chapters which surpassed their 1963 marks were:

- NC-WNDC—Cortez, Florin, Reno, Sacramento, San Mateo, Stockton.
- CCDC—Clovis, Delano.
- PSWDC—Downtown L.A., East Los Angeles, Imperial Valley, San Diego, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Venice-Culver, West Los Angeles, Gardena Valley, Orange County, Southwest L.A., Ventura County.
- IDC—Pocatello, Salt Lake City.
- MPDC—Arkansas Valley.
- MDC—Milwaukee, Detroit, Cincinnati.
- EDC—New York, Seabrook.

The Northern California Western Nevada District Council with 16 of its 25 chapters on the honor lists again reached an all-time high with 7,043.

The Pacific Southwest District Council broke an eighty-year-old mark to set a new high.

The Pacific Northwest bettered its 1963 membership marks.

The Eastern District Council at 851 also set a new all-time high.

The summaries by districts: PNWDC, 1,128; NC-WNDC, 7,043; CCDC, 1,128; PSWDC, 4,123; IDC, 1,647; MPDC, 833; MDC, 1,835; EDC, 851. Total—18,559.

Sansei problems topic for survey

CHICAGO—A questionnaire aimed at gaining an insight into Sansei problems is being readied by the Japanese American Service Committee, which plans to launch its survey soon. Sansei in the Chicago will be selected at random to answer the questionnaire by either direct mail or personal interview.

The questionnaire will seek vital statistics; information about schooling, social activities, vocational plans, and employment; attitudes toward school, family, religion, being of Japanese ancestry, and dating and marriage; and self-analysis. Sansei who are approached in the survey are asked for their cooperation in filling out the questionnaire. The agency needs this information to determine its role in the area of teen-age problems.

Prop. 14 adopted by 2-million margin, tops LBJ victory

SANTA BARBARA — The Pacific Southwest District Council accepted the invitation of the NC-WNDC to unite in efforts to test the constitutionality of Prop. 14 now it has passed.

The action highlighted the DC quarterly session here Nov. 8.

The DC also commended the Southern California Japanese Americans Against Prop. 14 committee, co-chaired by Wilbur Sato, Rev. George Aki and A. Walter Tashima, for their untiring efforts in the campaign.

The same committee is being asked to retain its organization to serve as nucleus to influence changes in the 1952 Immigration and Nationality Act. JACL has made several recommendations for change, including the elimination of the Asia-Pacific Triangle formula for admitting Asian immigrants.

OTHER STATES WITH FAIR HOUSING LAW IN LINE FOR PROP. 14-TYPE ACTION

LOS ANGELES—Comparing fair housing laws in some 15 states "as unwise and as unworkable" as was the 18th Amendment, Ed Mendenhall of High Point, N.C., president of the National Assn. of Real Estate Boards added his comments to the recent Prop. 14 approval. He was here this week for the organization's 57th annual convention, attended by more than 7,000 realtors.

Mendenhall also indicated that the NAREB had supported the California Real Estate Assn. with a $100,000 line of credit and "might" help in the same way in other states which have laws designed to bar discrimination in housing.

He was inclined to discount recent statements of Dr. Robert C. Weaver, director of the National Housing and Home Finance Agency, that repeal of the Rumford Act threatens urban renewal projects financed by federal funds in California.

Mendenhall said there are many federally-financed urban renewal projects under way in many of the 35 states which do not have anti-discrimination housing laws.

'Big 3' newspapers in Japan hail U.S. election of Johnson

TOKYO — Japan's "big three" newspapers editorially hailed the election of President Johnson last week. The Asahi, Mainichi and Yomiuri all placed a great deal of expectation on the future course of the U.S. government under him in the field of diplomacy.

"We hope President Johnson will open up a new phase in the U.S. policies, especially with respect to China and Southeast Asia, as a statesman with deep thoughts and long-range view," the Asahi said. A review of American policy toward this area was probably the most fundamental issue facing the President.

The Mainichi hoped the President would settle the Vietnam problem, either with full military intervention or a political settlement. Since the former involves a great risk, the Mainichi suggested the only way would be the latter.

"Therefore, the task facing President Johnson is how to open the way for such political settlement without damaging the American prestige."

The Yomiuri regarded President Johnson as the "principal promoter of world peace", now that the governments in Soviet Russia and Great Britain experienced a change in leadership. "What we expect of the new President are constant efforts towards peace and a flexible new policy toward China."

PSW JOINS NC-WNDC TO UNITE IN COURT TEST OF PROP. 14 MEASURE

SANTA BARBARA — The Pacific Southwest District Council accepted the invitation of the NC-WNDC to unite in efforts to test the constitutionality of Prop. 14 now it has passed.

Contributions to No-14 campaign acknowledged

SAN FRANCISCO — With termination of the election campaign against Prop. 14, voluntary contributions to the Statewide Committee of Japanese Americans Against Prop. 14 amounted to $1,120, according to committee treasurer Eddie Moriguchi.

An additional $304 was realized from sale of buttons by JACL Headquarters, making a total of $1,424 to supplement the amount for the campaign voted by the National JACL Council.

Statewide Committee chairman Jerry Enomoto took this opportunity to acknowledge with thanks the contributions received during the last two weeks of the campaign from the following:

- $100 — Seattle JACL
- $80 — Portland JACL
- $50 — Tak Kubota, Seattle; Min Yasui, Denver.

FOUR CALIFORNIA INITIATIVES

(Japanese American Stand in Parenthesis)	YES	NO
1920—Alien Land Law Initiative (No on 1)	668,483-75%	222,086-25%
1946—Initiative to Strengthen Alien Land Law (No on 15)	797,067-41%	1,143,780-59%
1956—Initiative to Repeal Alien Land Law (Yes on 13)	2,801,951-67%	1,391,991-33%
*1964—Initiative to Invalidate Fair Housing Laws (No on 14)	4,092,129-66%	2,113,580-34%

* Based on 31,318 of 31,498 precincts.

JACL chapters in California have been directly involved in three statewide initiatives: No on 15 in 1946. Yes on 13 in 1956, and No on 14 this year. A need for a citizens group of Japanese ancestry was created in 1920 when the alien land law initiative appeared since the Issei, then barred by law from naturalization privileges, had no vote and say in the matter.

In 1946, with only six active chapters in the state working through two regional offices (Headquarters was then in Salt Lake City) and the Civil Rights Defense Union (name for the Japanese American No on 15 Committee), Prop. 15 was defeated by a narrow 6 to 4 margin. Some have regarded the near-800,000 votes to an expression of anti-Japanese feeling.

In 1956, there were 51 chapters and regional offices in San Francisco, Fresno and Los Angeles. The alien land law had been declared unconstitutional by the state supreme court in 1952 and the JACL bid to eliminate the "dead" law through its "Yes on 13" campaign in 1956 succeeded by a 3 to 2 margin. The 1 1/2-million vote majority was overwhelming, but the proposition, in a sense, resembled a popularity contest and the judges were far from unanimous (about 1,400,000 nays).

There are 54 JACL chapters in California today, all lending effort to defeat Prop. 14, which was approved this past week by a whopping 2 million majority or a 3 to 2 margin. Some are interpreting this as an "anti-minority" vote though its sponsors, the California Real Estate Assn., wants us to believe the vote was not directed toward any minority group. But Negro reaction to the passage of Prop. 14 was immediate as the NAACP said it was planning to block the California Secretary of State from certifying the results of the vote. About 300 Negroes and supporters also demonstrated quietly in Los Angeles marching up Broadway to the City Hall on election night in protest.

In the next couple of weeks, JACL will determine its strategy to restore fair housing laws in California. Undoubtedly, the case will go all the way to the U.S. Supreme Court. We hopefully trust the determination will not take as long as the course of the alien land law, which took 32 years to be declared unconstitutional by the state supreme court.

What bothers us, however, is that over 4 million Californians don't believe in fair housing laws. But property taxes being what they are in California, it may not pay to be a home owner—especially in Los Angeles County, which is seeking a billion dollars through property taxes.

MEET 'MR. ZIP'

"Mr. Zip" is not a newcomer to our readers, but he'll appear from time to time in our column to remind JACL membership solicitors to include the ZIP Code number on the addresses hereafter on all membership forms.

It is our effort to expedite the delivery service of the Pacific Citizen. All newspaper and magazine publishers are taking active steps to include the Zip Code on all address labels.

CHAPTER PRESIDENT'S PROFILE

About 10 years ago, we initiated a Chapter President's Profile—and then dropped it for some reason that escapes us for the moment. But, we are going to provide the chapters a simple form asking pertinent questions about the new president with an added request that a photograph of him or her be included. A picture is not absolutely necessary but it renders this particular feature with more eye-appeal.

The recent PC Readership Survey has called for more personality sketches—and we can't think of a better preserve than our chapter presidents who take office in the coming weeks.

We shall also invite the Women's Auxiliaries and Jr. JACL units to be represented.

If responses come by Nov. 30, some of them may appear in the Holiday Issue. The questionnaire can be used as a basis for a Holiday Issue "profile" story of their new chapter president, if a chapter reporter chooses.

Sparky's Friend Replies

Editor:
As one of "Sparky's Friends", I am compelled to answer some of the criticisms leveled at JACL and those who have contributed toward Congressman Matsunaga's campaign.

There has never been any suggestion that JACL nationally or locally commit its resources to this effort. If JACL leaders are involved, it is completely independent of their chapter, district or national activities. I am a lifelong Republican, as are many others who are helping, and would be among the first to protest if JACL was engaged in partisan politics.

It is totally inaccurate to suggest that Congressman Matsunaga should or would speak for all persons of Japanese ancestry in Hawaii or the mainland. It is a greater mistake to assume that he would represent the purely parochial interests of the Nisei in California. It would be equally wrong for the Congressman to desert his honest convictions to please special interests or groups, which may have assisted in his election. It is unfortunate that we must support or oppose a candidate on the basis of a vote or posture on a single issue.

That he is of Japanese ancestry, is no reason to support his candidacy. By the same token, it should be no reason for withholding one's support. In many ways, Congressman Matsunaga (and Senator Inouye) represents Nisei participation and concern in our national affairs, which I suspect is more credit than most of us deserve. By their presence in the nation's capitol, they assure and enhance the acceptance of all persons of Japanese ancestry in all 50 States. By the excellence of their performance, the Nisei are judged and upgraded.

I am confident that those who have voluntarily joined "Sparky's Friends", did so in appreciation of the Congressman's dedicated service to our country as a citizen, soldier and legislator, and in recognition of his concern and interest in the broad goals and aspirations of JACL and all Japanese Americans.

About Prop. 14

Too bad about Prop. 14. I hope those who have been panning the JACL and speculating about its demise take notice that harassment of minorities is far from a dead issue in this country.

1913 ALIEN LAND LAW PAPERS GIVEN TO JHP

LOS ANGELES — Importance of turning over papers of deceased parents, such as the Japanese History Project at UCLA has received recently, was stressed this week by Joe Grant Masaoka, project administrator.

Personal documents and correspondence received from Mrs. Noboru Shirai, sister of Henry Taketa, whose father had passed away, included letters given to their father by a Miss Alice Brown of Florin who protested the activities to enact the 1913 alien land law and had received replies from David Starr Jordan, then president of Stanford University.

Washington Newsletter: by Mike Masaoka

Election Implications

WASHINGTON — By this time, many pundits have tried to read various meanings into the historic landslide victory at the polls last Nov. 3 of President Lyndon B. Johnson and his running mate, Senator Hubert H. Humphrey, now the Vice President elect.

In this Newsletter, we shall try to comment on some of the special implications as we see them in that election victory for JACLers and Americans of Japanese ancestry.

The very magnitude of the Democratic victory nationally demonstrates that the President has a mandate from just about every citizen in every part of the land to continue his efforts for peace, progress, and prosperity, directed toward the Great Society that is his ultimate objective.

Every State in the Union except five in the Deep South and Arizona voted for the Democratic ticket, and even in the five Southern States President Johnson might very well have won if more Negroes in those jurisdictions had been allowed to vote. And, Arizona was in the Goldwater column by only a narrow margin.

In the Congress, the Democrats increased their controlling margin in both the House and the Senate. In the 89th Congress that convenes next Jan. 4, there will be 155 more Democrats than Republicans in the House, a net gain of 76 over the last session. In the Senate, there will be 68 Democrats and 32 Republicans, a net gain of two seats.

All this suggests that the next Administration and the next Congress will be pretty much the same as in the immediate past, except that the liberals in the Congress, especially in the House, will have greater influence. Most of the Democrats and the Republicans who were defeated on Nov. 3 were conservatives.

That the so-called white backlash against Negro advances did not materialize is most significant for JACL and those of Japanese ancestry, for that failure suggests that most of the American people now believe that every citizen should be accorded constitutional rights and social justice, irrespective of race and religion.

Aside from the rural South, the only exception to the forward progress of civil rights was in California, where by an overwhelming margin Prop. 14 to nullify fair housing was approved by the electorate. Even in California, however, we believe that most of the voters were not aware of the implications of Prop. 14.

This defeat for fair housing may well inspire other States and local communities to attempt similar endeavors to nullify not only housing but other civil rights legislation.

At the same time, though, the forces for civil rights and for human dignity and decency may be so aroused throughout the Nation that Prop. 14 may well turn into a Pyrrhic victory for the bigots and the racemongers in California.

Americans of Japanese ancestry are particularly pleased that the Aloha State of Hawaii is sending an Oriental delegation to the Congress. Republican Senator Hiram Fong, a Chinese American, and Democrats Senator Daniel Inouye and Congressman Spark Matsunaga and State Senator Patsy Takemoto Mink, all Japanese Americans, will comprise the first all-Asian congressional delegation in history.

The three men have already achieved great success in the National Legislature, and the first Nisei woman to sit in the Congress is expected to add luster to that record. All are moderate liberals, though each acts independently on the various legislative proposals that will come before them.

Though Republican Senator Thomas Kuchel of California is a demonstrated friend of Japanese Americans, little is known of the only Republican to defeat a Democratic Senator in this past election, George Murphy, who unseated Senator Pierre Salinger. It is hoped that he will be as cooperative and as concerned as have the other California Senators since the end of World War II.

On the other hand, JACL is pleased that Democratic Congressman Sidney Yates of Illinois and David King of Utah have been returned to the House of Representatives. Two years ago, each of them unsuccessfully attempted a race for the United States Senate. Both are well-known and highly regarded by JACLers in their respective districts.

JACL is also pleased that such friendly Senators as Henry Jackson of Washington, Philip Hart of Michigan, Mike Mansfield of Montana, Roman Hruska of Nebraska, Stephen Young of Ohio, Albert Gore of Tennessee, and Frank "Ted" Moss of Utah, were re-elected for another term.

That Democratic Congressman Joseph Montoya of New Mexico successfully challenged for the Senate and that former United States Attorney Joseph Tydings won election as United States Senator from Maryland are also good news for JACL. Tydings' stepfather, Senator Millard Tydings, chairman of the Armed Services Committee after World War II, was helpful to the JACL program in the early days of the Washington JACL Office. Congressman Montoya is a proud booster of Nisei Congressional Medal of Honor awardee Hiroshi Miyamura of Gallup.

That all of the Congressmen who have been most cooperative with JACL's programs and objectives were reelected, including all of those from the western States, is a commentary on the kind of lawmaker that is attracted to JACL's objectives.

We thought that the 1964 campaign was particularly vicious and bitter, with more racial overtones than any other that we can remember.

Though white supremacy was not at issue officially, we must admit to being pleased that the American electorate so overwhelmingly rejected the presidential candidate who covertly hoped that a "white backlash" groundswell would sweep him into the White House.

That ethnic, religious, nationality, labor, and other groups refused to be victimized by such prejudicial appeals speaks well of the maturity of the American people.

In this last campaign, the religious issue was not a factor. And we are among those who trust that never again will a man's religious beliefs or background be a disqualification for the highest office in the land.

In this campaign too, for the first time a united Negro vote was easily discernable. No longer can, or will, the Negro voice be ignored in our national life. And, with more and more Negroes becoming eligible and qualified to vote in every section of the Nation, and especially in the Old South, the political, economic, and social life of our country may be drastically altered in the near future. Neither political parties nor candidates can afford to ignore the Negro and his aspirations.

JOHNSON CHALKS UP LARGEST VOTE TOTAL EVER IN HAWAII ELECTIONS

HONOLULU — Complete unofficial returns in the Hawaii elections show President Johnson chalking up the largest vote total ever given a candidate in Hawaii, 162,847 (78.7 pct.) to 44,090 for Senator Goldwater.

Republican U.S. Sen. Hiram Fong successfully bucked the Democratic tide to be re-elected over Rep. Thomas P. Gill by a vote of 110,723 to 96,689.

In the other dramatic example of ticket-splitting, 10-year incumbent Republican Mayor Neal S. Blaisdell walloped Democrat Masato Doi by 35,581 votes, biggest victory margin in the mayor's career. The vote was 96,088 to 60,507. Doi was the first Nisei to run for mayor of a major U.S. city.

Two Democrats, incumbent Spark M. Matsunaga and State Sen. Patsy Takemoto Mink, easily captured the state's U.S. House seats. Matsunaga polled 140,082 votes; Mrs. Mink, 107,003. The Republican opponents John Milligan had 89,298; Richard Sutton, 56,130.

State Legislature

Democrats retained firm control of the state legislature, increasing their present 15-10 margin in the Senate to 16-9. In the House, the Republicans picked up one seat, but the Democrats still control with 39-12.

Kazuhiisa Abe, Island of Hawaii, who broke into the news last year by attempting to abolish Christmas and Thanksgiving as legal holidays and replacing them with an April 8th Buddha Day, was elected Senate President, with George Ariyoshi, Oahu, as Majority Leader.

The nine-man Democrat monopoly of the Honolulu City Council was broken by Republican Eugene F. Kennedy, who ousted controversial incumbent Richard M. Kageyama by a 5,000 vote margin.

Political Post-Mortem Political writer Dan Tuttle in the Honolulu Advertiser said Sen. Fong is clearly the leader of Hawaii Republicans and may play a significant future national party role.

THE NISEI and other minorities in California suffered a severe blow when Prop. 13, the creature of the California Real Estate Association, was passed by a nearly 2 to 1 vote. This initiative measure repealed the Rumford fair housing law which the state legislature had passed at its last session and provided that no further fair housing legislation could be written into the state statutes.

The initiative was sold through subterfuge to some, since it was pushed as a proposal to give every Californian the right to sell his home to anyone of his choice. What Prop. 13 really meant, of course, was that it was proposing freedom for discrimination. The homeowner could deny the purchase of his property on racial grounds.

Although Senator Pierre Salinger was defeated, it is to his credit that he came out against Prop. 13 and his courage on this issue probably contributed to his defeat by George Murphy, the former actor who took no position on Prop. 13 or on Goldwater's candidacy.

Now that Prop. 13 has passed, the battle for racial equality in housing in California must shift for the JACL and for their associated groups to the courts.

a media-type effort. Fong's media attempts—newspaper advertising, radio-TV and brochure mailings—were repeated and reinforced to the point of diminishing returns, Tuttle added.

Mrs. Mink plans to leave for Washington in December after swinging through the neighbor islands to thank the voters. Her husband, John Mink, will leave his position as geologist at the Board of Water Supply and probably take up a teaching post there.

Despite his defeat, Doi said he was not through with politics if the party needs him. And it was difficult for him to knock Blaisdell's programs he himself supported during his eight years on the city council, the last four as chairman. Doi now plans to maintain his private practice of law.

Councilman Kageyama, who finished seventh for six at-large council positions, now plans to devote full-time to his real estate business. He has been in office for 14 years.

Vagaries

The Goldwater Campaign

THERE are several perspectives from which to view the repudiation of Senator Barry Goldwater and his campaign, but one which gives one pause is the realization that in the only Goldwater success was in the Deep South where the GOP took five states, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama and Louisiana.

The point of interest to the Nisei is that this one victory for Goldwater stemmed from the senator's exploitation of the racial issue, for it was no secret to the voters of the South that Goldwater had voted against the Civil Rights bill. In his sallies into the Deep South where Governors Wallace and Johnson of Alabama and Mississippi respectively have turned back the clock of progress and where Negro churches are bombed and where lynching is still practiced, although the pistol and rifle have replaced the rope, Goldwater spoke of "law and order" and of "freedom of choice." These euphemisms were designed to unleash the white backlash—and it did in the South.

But Goldwater's policy of giving the civil rights question back to the individual states, which in effect would have abandoned the Negroes' surge toward equality, had little effect in the southern border states and none whatever farther north. In Tennessee and Kentucky, which President Johnson took handsomely, it was Goldwater's advocacy of selling the TVA to private interests (once stated, but later qualified) and his various positions on social security which moved the electorate.

THE NATIONAL elections stressed that the race question has considerable currency down south but none at all in the other sections of the country. At least Goldwater's opposition to the Civil Rights law won him no supporters in the West Coast, in the Rockies, the Midwest or the East. It might have been a factor, in the industrial towns like Gary, Ind., where Americans of immigrant stock fear the Negro equality movement as jeopardizing their jobs, but were outweighed by Goldwater's positions on other matters.

And it is one of the contradictions of history that the Republican party, which came to power in the middle of the 19th century on a progressive platform which stressed concern for the human and citizen rights of the Negro was finally isolated into the southeast corner of the country, into what must now be regarded as the bigots' belt. Except in Mississippi, however, and in Alabama where the Johnson-Humphrey ticket was not even on the ballot, it should be remembered that there were hundreds of thousands who did vote for the national Democratic ticket, an act which took some courage in areas where the murders of Negroes and of civil rights workers have gone unpunished to date.

THE REPUBLICAN victory was concentrated into five southern states and Goldwater's native Arizona where he won by a narrow margin. But the GOP, of course, has not been destroyed as a national influence. Those GOP leaders who have stood forthright on the issues which move liberals, particularly the Civil Rights law, have their standing enhanced by the results of the voting. Among these are Senators Thomas Kuchel of California, Jacob Javits of New York, Clifford Case of New Jersey and others who declined to support Goldwater. It is their task, along with a phalanx of moderate GOP governors, to lead the GOP back to the mainstream of American politics.

ALTHOUGH the great majority of Japanese Americans joined with their fellow voters in the landslide of votes for Johnson-Humphrey, there also was some organized activity for Goldwater on behalf of some Nisei. Colorado's State Senator Seiji Horiuchi of Brighton, the only Nisei member of a state legislature outside of Hawaii, joined with a number of Colorado Nisei for a Nisei for Goldwater committee and they circulated the editorials written by World War II war hero, Ben Kuroki, on behalf of Goldwater. Kuroki is now the editor of two weekly newspapers in Michigan. These Goldwater supporters sidestepped their candidate position on the civil rights law, but they should be aware by now that Goldwater's position on the equality issue was the touchstone of his campaign.

It may be a cliché by now, but it is nevertheless true that any political candidate's view of the Negro question reflects directly on his position on the Nisei, the Jews and other racial and religious minorities. The Nisei should know by now that there is no security in being accepted as honorary Aryans.

THE NISEI and other minorities in California suffered a severe blow when Prop. 13, the creature of the California Real Estate Association, was passed by a nearly 2 to 1 vote. This initiative measure repealed the Rumford fair housing law which the state legislature had passed at its last session and provided that no further fair housing legislation could be written into the state statutes.

"Is it true Carter got this Sundry from a troupe of traveling Kabuki players in exchange for a set of Indian ankle bells?" "Oh Phyllis! He got it at the neighborhood liquor shop. It's just being discovered—remember artichokes?" "Harold, why don't you ever discover anything?" "I discovered the cocktail party."

For a refreshingly different taste in whisky, discover the classic whisky from Japan. Suntory is unique, with all the delicacy and understatement of a Hiroshige landscape. Yet, overall, it has the well-bred masculinity of the world's classic pot-distilled whiskies. Suntory is available at most purveyors of fine spirits, or they can order it for you. Priced among the better imports, 88.8 proof. A blend of rare selected whiskies distilled and bottled near Kyoto in Japan. Suntory Importers, Ltd., Philadelphia, Pa.

Speaking now officially, I feel obligated to point out that the passage of Prop. 13 is a serious roadblock to civil rights. We cannot afford these roadblocks.

As Americans of Japanese ancestry and JACLers, we have been victims of bigotry, but we have also been the beneficiaries of legislative and judicial processes that have given us redress of grievances. We must utilize our JACL organization to help reverse the backward push given us by the California Real Estate Assn. in the form of Prop. 13.

There is nothing sacred about the "voice of the people" if it is based upon misplaced loyalty to property over people, and of frank bigotry. Such a mandate as Prop. 13 must be countered by responsible legislative and/or judicial steps.

Finally, let me thank and congratulate JACLers and all Americans of Japanese ancestry in California for a fine job. Particularly our district supervisors, Tad Masao, Wilbur Sato, Mikko Uchiyama and all area supervisors. The rallying together of Nisei of goodwill for the first time on a large scale cannot be overlooked.

Particularly significant has been the generous financial support from JACLers outside of California, who have the vision to see the threat behind measures like Prop. 13. We in California thank you.

The passage of Prop. 13 in no way lessens the stature of JACL. In fact our stature has been enhanced, as we stood alongside of responsible and moral Californians on the right side of a so called controversial issue, which had only one right side.

The real tragedy lies in the myopic lack of vision of so many California voters. Make no mistake about it, the legal means available to us in a democracy must be utilized to correct that nearsightedness.

YOUTH SOUND OFF

Impact of the reports given to the closing assembly session of last Sunday's Santa Barbara Chapter Clinic by the youths, namely, Jimmy Ito of Hollywood Chapter Jr. JACL, Robert Uyesaka of Santa Barbara, and David Ota of Venice-Culver Jr. JACL, left the adults with a dazed feeling of having just been over runned by a freight train for having failed to stop, look and listen before making the crossing.

The effects of the jolt, needless to say, were something more than just stimulating. It clearly gave indications that we as adults were merely slackening speed rather than coming to a complete stop at the crossing . . . or perhaps too actively pointing and pushing . . . or even talking too much, rather than listening.

While adult feelings and opinions may rightfully differ . . . we must, however, concede to agree that these youths did have the courage to make themselves heard and that the adults did get their message. This, perhaps, was the point of greater importance to us all.

It may be good for the JACL to take heed to the expressions of our youth and review what to them, are the commodity words of the past. Words such as Evacuation, concentration camps, barbed wires, hatred, discrimination, fruit stands, stoop labor, Japanese culture, and more Japanese . . . etc. . . must be equalized with as many new words for today. Our youth may find words as human relations, community service, peace corps, etc. . . as meaningful to them as words that remain significant to us.

The pendulum of the JACL image must not swing only to the past, but must also swing equally to the future. This total image of the JACL may be what is sought and questioned by our youth today for their generations of tomorrow. We must give answer without delay.

CLINIC TOO BRIEF

To our host Santa Barbara Chapter, president George Ohashi, J. Uyesaka, Mr. and Mrs. Caesar Uyesaka, Mike Hide, Tom Hirashima, Hiro Goto and to the members of the host chapter, we extend our thanks for a most enjoyable and successful clinic.

One complaint that seems to ring true: why didn't we plan for a two-day session? To everyone from San Luis Obispo to Phoenix, Ariz. . . it was good getting together.

Thanks to Mas Satow, National JACL Director for the luncheon address and to the Santa Barbara High School male octet for the top entertainment (that is, next to PSW inter-chapter membership contest losers a capella group).

Congratulations to our new PSW-DC Chairman, Kats Arimoto!

To those chapters who helped make the afternoon sessions a success, Mrs. George Kanegai, president, Council, to Henry Kanegae, Membership and to Alan Kanegae, Youth, thanks a lot.

To the resource members to the sessions, Ron Shiozaki, Dr. David Miura, Kay Nakagiri, Clarence Nishizu, Mas Satow, Mable Yoshizaki and to each delegate attending, thanks for your participation and contributions to the success of the Santa Barbara Chapter Clinic.

To Tom Hirashima . . . your M.C. job was superbly done!

In closing, to Jimmy Ito, Hollywood Chapter Jr. JACL, many thanks for your leadership in the days youth program.

JERRY ENOMOTO TO ADDRESS 24TH PLACER JACL FETE

Goodwill Banquet Expected to Attract 400 County Leaders

PENRYN — Jerry J. Enomoto, associate superintendent in charge of the Youth Reception Guidance Center at Deuel Vocational Institution at Tracy, will be the principal speaker at the 24th annual Placer County JACL youth dinner Nov. 14, 7 p.m., at the Johnson Hall on the Placer County Fairgrounds in Roseville.

As the principal public relations event of the year for the JACL chapter, among the 400 expected to attend will include professional, business and farm leaders of the area as well as government and JACL officials.

The event has gained the reputation of being one of the best of its kind in the nation to promote friendship and understanding.

Enomoto, who is serving his second term as National JACL first vice-president and his third term as National JACL youth commissioner, will talk on "Youth". He should have a stirring message for young and old alike, according to Howard Nakae, general chairman, and Enomoto is eminently qualified to speak on the subject as he has been in close contact with young people, their problems and their rehabilitation for many years.

The Sacramento Kotobuki-kai will present a program of Japanese folk dances. Roseville Mayor Willard Dietrick and chapter president Harry Kawahata will extend greetings. Harry Sands, Auburn businessman and 1000 Clubber, will emcee. James Makimoto will present the Silver JACL pin to an outstanding leader.

Members of the dancing troupe are:
Noriko Toda, Keiko Sando, Mabel Inai, Susan Takahashi, Yumiko Tanabe and Ayako Miyagi.

Committee chairman:
Howard Nakae, gen. chmn.; George Hirakawa, co-chmn.; Ellen Kubo, fin.; Hiko Nishimoto, program; Bob Nakamura, hall arrangements; Hiko Yeko, guests; James Makimoto, recognition; Ernie Sasaki, catering; Bunji Nakagawa, pub.; Ted Ueda, rec.; the Junior and JACL decorations; Spring Nakae and Janet Tanaka, hostesses.

Members of the dancing troupe are:
Noriko Toda, Keiko Sando, Mabel Inai, Susan Takahashi, Yumiko Tanabe and Ayako Miyagi.

YOUTHS INVITED TO CHICAGO JR. JACL WORKSHOP NOV. 27-28

CHICAGO — Jr. JACLers in the Midwest and Eastern District Council areas have been invited to exchange ideas at the Chicago Jr. JACL workshop Nov. 27-28 at the Christ Congregational Church, 701 Buckingham.

The program begins with a potluck dinner and mixer on Friday night, the workshop on Saturday and closing the weekend at the 20th Anniversary Chicago JACL-Jr. JACL inaugural and ball at the McCormick Place.

Congressman-elect Sidney Yates of Illinois will be banquet speaker. Dr. James Takao, MDC chairman, of Cincinnati will be installation officer.

Sequoia JACL Youth Basketball: Sequoia JACL and Palo Alto YABA are co-sponsoring a youth basketball program for boys, 9-11, 12-13, 14-18, and girls 12-14, 14-18 at the Palo Alto Buddhist Church.

Chapter Call Board

Sacramento JACL
"Stars of Tomorrow": Another packed house is expected for the Sacramento JACL "Stars of Tomorrow" talent show Nov. 21 at the local Buddhist Church auditorium. Curtains rise at 8 p.m.

Tom Sato, chapter president, said the show is the only fund-raising event sponsored by the chapter. Talent from throughout the valley are being contacted to appear in the star-studded show.

Callers wishing to appear may call Dr. James Kubo (443-8034) or Bill Matsumoto (421-4585 or 448-9379).

Mt. Olympus JACL
Bazaar Locale Changed: The Mt. Olympus JACL bazaar date and locale has been changed to Nov. 13 (today) at the Murray National Guard Armory. It was slated for Nov. 14.

Arizona JACL
Zoo Benefit: The Arizona JACL's 1964 community project will be a benefit luau this Sunday, 4-8 p.m., for the Phoenix Zoo. It will be held at the Arizona Buddhist Church, 4142 W. Clarendon St., with Ernie Menchune and his Polynesian Revue entertaining. Chairmen are: Mrs. Satoshi Tanita, chmn.; Harvey Iida, etc.

Tickets are $3.50 adults, $2 for children under 12.

Chicago JACL
Basketball Clinic: The Chicago JACL Youth Commission resumes its 15-week basketball clinic this Sunday, Nov. 15, at the Olivet Community Center.

Volunteer coaches, former Nisei basketball stars and phys-ed teachers under direction of Shig Murao, Waller High basketball coach, and Sam Zaiman will teach fundamentals to beginners between 9 and 12 from 12:30 p.m. Clinic includes intramural games for boys between 13 and 15 from 1:30 p.m. Equipment is being furnished. The boys are asked to bring their own gym shoes, gym suit and towel.

Downtown L.A. JACL
Varrichione to Speak: Downtown L.A. JACL terminates its year of luncheon meetings with Rams captain and all-pro linesman Frank Varrichione as main speaker Dec. 16, noon, at the Tokyo Kaikan.

Recalling last year's highly successful year-end meeting with Dogger boss Walter O'Malley, it promises to be a "bang-up" meeting, chapter president Takito Yamaguchi said. Arrangements were made by board member Herb Murayama.

All Downtown L.A. JACL luncheons are open to the public. Reservations may be made by either calling the JACL Office (MA 6-4471) or chapter board members.

Sequoia JACL

led by the clinic, which was co-chaired by George Ohashi and Mrs. Jane Uyesaka of the host chapter. They were membership, chapter presidents and youth.

Though the clinic schedule called for two hours of discussion, it had to be abbreviated because of the crowded agenda of the regular DC business session. Each clinic group submitted a resume at the closing general assembly.

The membership group stressed the importance of chapter newsletters, follow-up on mail solicitation campaigns and the DC health insurance plan. New chapters were also urged to provide added avenues of leadership. The group also discussed the 1000 Club, its Life Membership problem, and steps to modernize membership campaigns.

President's Committee
The chapter presidents, outgoing and incoming, agreed that a special president's committee be formed within the district. Chapter presidents were also advised to be "in the line" of all committee work in line with the guide that a president should be able to organize and delegate and supervise.

Chapter presidents also asked that the DC chairman make it a point to visit with each chapter during his tenure of office.

The youth clinic summary reminded that adult support and advisers are important and that new goals be established for Jr. JACL. Current objectives seemed inadequate since those relating to cultural heritage and social are already available in existing organizations within the community of Southern California. An expression of part-time or full-time staff assistance to promote the youth or Jr. JACL program was also made.

As the youth members met separately during the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Caesar Uyesaka, summaries of their activities were presented by Jim Ito, Hollywood Jr. JACL; David Ota, Venice-Culver Jr. JACL; and Bob Uyesaka, Santa Barbara youth.

Meanwhile, the PSW youth leadership and the Hi-Co board is meeting this Sunday to outline plans for the 1965 conference at the home of Sharon Aono.
