The Golden Years with JACLers

Fresno who presented me with the charges are made. key to the city. In accepting the honor and groping for the proper words of grateful acknowledgment, I casually responded that I hope when the day for my retirement arrives and when I start looking for the place to spend my golden years, that this key will fit a door in some apartment which the JACL has built as a place for the aged in Fresno.

Lately, as I conjure the thought of what fate has in store for us in our twilight years, I'm intrigued that my remarks made in Fresno does have merit which is so I offer them here.
