In his inaugural speech in Chicago, been associated with Immun- been believed to be virtually he described as one of his most traumatic moments ity Research ever since the impossible because of the livthe death of his father. What he did not explain was that his father Clarence, died totally unexpectedly at the artificial liver over a nouncement. The shock of losing a father, following close on the heels of the experience of being torn away from home and school and friends, was a shock indeed, but these events obviously only steeled his determination to make something of himself.

One of the amusing, and also sad, aspects of regarding a 39-year-old as "young" is that the bulk of the Nisei are, by contrast, "old". It seems unlikely that a member of the so-called JACL "old guard" will never hold the presidency again. The new era is here.

NISEI OF THE BIENNIUM—Aside from political considerations, few would deny that the three finalists for recognition in Chicago as "Nisei of the Biennium" were eminently qualified. At one time a Nisei of the Biennium candidate was one who had distinguished himself within his community; Dr. Paul Terasaki (the ultimate winner), Dr. S. I. Hayakawa and Shiro Kashiwa are national and international personalities.

One of the highlights of our Chicago visit was an opportunity to talk with these three men. Shiro Kashiwa of Hawaii, an assistant attorney general of the United States, was recognized primarily for his work in adjudicating the enormous claims of Indian tribes against the government. In reality, he pointed out, he is much more involved in the legal aspects of administration of public lands and natural resources, certainly a role that ultimately affects all citizens of the United in a San Fernando Valley SAN FRANCISCO—Commu-States.

Dr. Terasaki told of working in Chicago as a bus boy while pursuing his education. While he is carried as a professor of surgery in the UCLA medical school, he said he was neither a surgeon nor a doctor of medicine, but a biologist. He well might rest on his laurels as discoverer of a tissue-typing system that makes organ transplants by surgery much less risky ries, is active with the Ma- a sumo tournament in the aftthan heretofore, but he is looking forward to even sonic Lodge and the Foot- ernoon, chicken teriyaki dinmore medically significant breakthroughs. What a modest, soft-spoken gentleman he is.

Hayakawa revealed in our conversation that in view of the furore that followed his nomination, he made the trip to Chicago to accept his award only at the insistence of his wife. Yet in his appearance before the banquet throng, he was the epitome of graciousness. He mentioned briefly his active and continuing concern with minority problems, specifically the civil rights of Blacks, that dates back to a time before most Sansei was born. And he told of breaking with the JACL oer a matter of principle involving the Walter-McCarran immigration law. For, he said, while it offered him the privilege of becoming a naturalized American (a privilege he accepted gratefully), he felt it did an injustice to a number of other minorities. Thus he considered JACL wrong in endorsing it. Parenthetically, it should be noted that subsequent legislation supported by JACL has rectified the earlier law's faults. Hayakawa had some cogent observations about Sansei campus activists, but we shall save them for another time.

Dedicated to the Issei "who made it all possible."

This distinguished work commemorates and records the heritage, the ordeals, and the splendid triumphs of all Japanese Americans during the past 100 years.

It is a book deserving of a place of honor in your home-a book your children and their children will read some day with great pride and pleasure.

".. an eloquent contribution to the classic immigrant story that focuses on a small but not insignificant segment of the American people." -William Hogan, San Francisco Chronicle

"... the most searching and dramatic inquiry into the genesis of the evacuation program." -Gladwin Hill,

New York Times Book Review

"...a well-reasoned and eminently readable history which might well be a required textbook for Japanese Americans in search of their heritage."

1000 CLUB CHARTER FLIGHT TO JAPAN

Interest and enthusiasm for the 1971 JACL 1000 Club charter flights to Japan are beginning to catch steam, now that the JACL Convention in Chicago is history. At first, it was for a flight out of Chicago but when some 1000ers on the west coast found they had to fly to Chicago to join the charter flight, it wasn't long after they decided to coordinate similar charters originating from Seattle, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Salt Lake City.

So earlier this year Dr. Frank Sakamoto, as National the name of George Yoshina- '70 which I am enclosing for Americans. Second they want-1000 Club Chairman, called upon his district 1000 Club chairmen to assist in the plans as flight representatives. For the latest information and reservations, write or call:

The charter flight organizers have selected prime time to visit Japan—Oct. 2 to 23—when the weather your columnist did a very inthere is most suitable for sightseeing, golfing, etc. The accurate job with his report highlight, of course, will be the Whing Ding at the from Tucson, and I have to new Imperial Hotel in Tokyo-though knowing 1000- believe that he went out of ers whenever they gather, it'll be a whingding all the that would either make him way there and back.

The flight representatives are to assist in organizing special tours and more will be said about these later. Others may prefer to tour on their own or visit relatives.

The charter flight is open to any 1000 Club member, who is current for both years 1970 and 1971, their spouse and dependent children. This new ruling may upset some 1000ers who had planned to include their Issei parents since former regulations allowed for all members of a household to qualify. The latest rule restricts eligibility to members of the immediate family only.

Current JACL members can convert their regular membership (for which $6.50 has already been submitted) to 1000 Club by remitting an additional $18.50 point of the fact that he was to National JACL Headquarters. The 1000 Clubbers contribute $25 annually to National JACL. That amount is also tax deductible.

We don't know when the final down payment on the charter flight fees are due, but with 13 months ahead (till Labor Day, 1971, which will be about a month before departure time), it might be the right time to start a savings account somewhere—banking to the Tucson Daily Citizen. at least $2 a day to cover round-trip air fare, ground tour and accommodations. The interest will cover the whing ding expenses at Tokyo, I'm sure.

Oh yes, we know of a $20 a month plan in Los the records of our reception-Angeles known as the Ramune Club, which Al Hatate, national JACL treasurer, has been handling since the end of 1968. Seems some people then had a hankering of "ramune" (a Japanese soft-drink) but had to go to Japan to get it—so the club began.

(News of the JACL 1000 Club charter flight can only be published in a JACL publication by government regulations. We'd appreciate the other publications honor this embargo.—Ed.)

Superficiality

But the most obvious case of superficial reporting and writing came in his reference He alleges that he "had to drop by the Evening Citizen, one of two daily newspapers in the city." I have checked ist over a period of several months and there is no indication that he ever visited or attempted to visit the Tucson Daily Citizen. I assure you that had he come during the daytime when the afternoon Citizen staff is on duty, any one of us would have been most pleased to receive him and show him every courtesy. However, he goes on to remark that he observed "in the entrance of the building" a framed newspaper page the headline, "Japs Bomb Pearl Harbor," and he proceeds then to impugn the integrity and good will of the
