EDUCATION

When the National Planning Commission came out with Education as the top priority, I was more humored than surprised. True to form, JACL is a middle-class oriented organization since Education rates tops in the middle-class value system. Should we have expected more or less?

Asian Americanism and, in particular, the JA contribution, both historical and prospective. In some ways, it may be a self-fulfilling prophesy.

Under the leadership of Director Ron Hirano of the Education Commission and Chairman Harry Kawahara of the National JACL Education Committee, many interesting, novel, unique and exciting projects and programs will be developed. Combined with this will be the work of Chairman Bob Nakamura of the National JACL Visual Communications Committee.

JACL ENDOWMENT FUND

What makes this week's piece extremely hazardous to essay is that the report already in the hands of JACL convention delegates is the most comprehensive and well-prepared. Yet it left us somewhat confused. We are referring to the Endowment Fund report, which chairman Dr. George Miyake of Fowler JACL drafted. It recalls the background, inserts a memorandum outlining the original intent of the fund NEARLY $148,000 MORE and promises to potential donors, and summarizes its history of operations to date. What transpired at the 1970 convention calling for use of the principal and ALL the defeat of that motion by one vote are clearly enunciated.

Between the time the 1970 convention adjourned and when the Endowment Fund committee met last January, an ad hoc committee was established under chairmanship of Dr. John Kanda of Puyallup Valley JACL to formulate guidelines for use of Endowment in Washington where, as in Fund monies, namely the principal as well as dividends. The Endowment Fund committee's reasoning is a stroke of statesmanship as Dr. Miyake has so well exhibited in the past. Changing the portfolio "would satisfy those who object to making use of the principal of the fund as well as placate those who feel annual funds should be made available for projects". This procedure also skirts the need to secure written approval of three-fourths of all chapters. proposed. Approximately $131,000 to $148,000 in additional income from dues alone will be needed.

The Executive Committee approved a proposal of a due increase of $1.50 per regular membership to realize an additional income of $37,500. Now the picture changes and in order to adopt all proposed major programs, instead of a $1.50 due increase, you must now be prepared to adopt a minimum of $5.50 to $6.00 due increase. I hope that I have the picture clear as to what creases are concerned.

As I have stated previously, I will not comment on any of the major program proposals as I may do injustice to their presentation and also show my prejudice. However, this does not mean that I do not have any opinion as to what programs should be adopted and what my choices are.

Time is running short and this will be my last article before the Convention. I ask again that you study carefully the proposed budget and all of the proposed major programs and when we meet in Washington, let's all be ready to tackle this important task of adopting the budget for the next biennium.

Low Cost Housing

The presidential primaries are in the thick of things, especially in California with debates, speeches and rallies taking place everywhere.

In relationship to all this politicking, something gressional Banquet speaker, else is happening in a remote place called the Interwhich, incidently, by tradition national Hotel near San Francisco Chinatown which has been the prerogative of houses elderly Chinese and Filipinos. It is a source of low cost housing for welfare recipients and pensioners I felt we should stick to the who want to live in their own community. Though like selection. When notified of the so many other small hotels in Little Tokyo, Chinatown, selection, I advised the caller Manilatown, etc., elsewhere, this one is unique. The difference is a group of young Asians who have dedicated themselves to saving International Hotel from phet to predict certain things destruction or specifically, to carry on a struggle for low cost housing for those who need it generally.

Now how does this relate to the primaries? Senator of some unfair accusations, Humphrey's finance chairman in Northern California is Walter Shorenstein, owner of International Hotel who wants to tear it down, displace all those elderly men so he can temporarily make a parking lot. His main plan remains to be seen. His obvious strategy and values clearly show his preference for money over lationships between Japan and the concern of human beings. This isn't just a "yes" the United States, but with man in the Humphrey campaign; he's the one who the United States and every hustles the money and attaches all the strings. If this of what may happen will not is the type of man who sits in the smoke-filed rooms prevent our hope of making with the Senator, then it becomes obvious as to where things that could happen, hap- the Senator truly stands.

From the Frying Pan

Tacoma, Wash.

ASIAN CULTURAL WEEK-Tacoma Community College, which opened its doors in 1965, is one of 26 community colleges in the state of Washington. It provides two years of college instruction while at the same time, by definition, it seeks to meet the educational needs of its community. Last month, in keeping with its objectives, Tacoma Community College sponsored an Asian Cultural Week built around the highly acclaimed exhibit, The Pride and the Shame, assembled under sponsorship of the Seattle JACL chapter.

The timing was particularly poignant. Asian Cultural Week opened on the 30th anniversary of the evacuation of Tacoma area Japanese Americans to the Pinedale Assembly Center in California. College and high school students as well as townspeople attended the functions. Most of them, of course, weren't born at the time of the evacuation and many of them had never heard of it. But the link between Tacoma and Asian Americans predates the Evacuation by many decades.

As early as 1885 citizens of Tacoma, led by their German-born mayor, formed a vigilante committee to run the Chinese out of town. When Japanese immigration got under way a decade or so later, Tacoma was the major port of entry in the Northwest. Seattle and Tacoma were vying for dominance, and at that time Tacoma was the more important city.

The story of the Chinese in the Northwest is told in some detail by Murray Morgan in his book, "Skid Row", recently reissued in paperback. Morgan is a professor of history at Tacoma Community College, a prolific author, and an outstanding authority on the history of the Northwest. We were talking about the less than hospitable attitude of early-day Northwesterners toward the Chinese when Morgan recalled that in his reading he had come across one serious proposal to bring in large numbers of Chinese for the benefit of the United States. That was during the period the U.S. and Britain were squabbling over territorial rights in what is now Washington and British Columbia. Both sides wanted more of the land than they could possibly settle, and some Americans suggested that it might be a good idea to import a lot of Chinese to settle and claim the land on behalf of the United States. It didn't seem to make much difference that the Chinese by law could not become citizens. At any rate, nothing came of the proposal.

Asian Cultural Week was in large part the creation of Joe Kosai, the locally born Admissions and Records officer at Tacoma Community College. With the support of the Puyallup Valley JACL chapter, and the blessings of the college administration, he arranged for the Pride and Shame exhibit and put together the program. Incidentally, chairman of the college's five-man Board of Trustees is another Nisei, the Rev. Robert Yamashita.

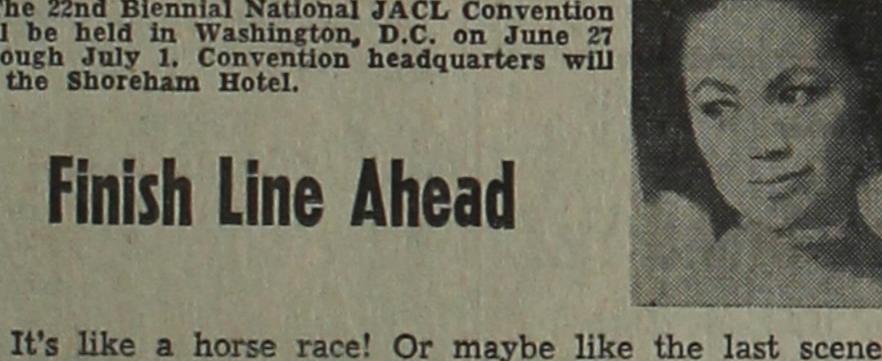

Just how much good programs like Asian Cultural Week can accomplish is difficult to measure. There are always a few citizens who insist on confusing the issue by pointing out that their sons or husbands died in the Pacific war and therefore no mercy should have been shown "Japanese" in the United States. There are others who question the wisdom of reopening old wounds and dwelling on a black chapter of history which they feel should be forgotten.

not be forgotten that schools should sponsor such programs. If schools cannot keep history alive and relarships, Salt Lake JACL's

Joe Kosai was too young to remember very much about the Evacuation, but this doesn't diminish his desire to make sure that others know what happened, and I'm grateful he gave me the opportunity to help tell the story.

Auto-Ready Announces the Vacation that Starts When You Do If your car has already seen its best days, you may be getting the short end of your vacation. Whether it's a two-weeker or one of the three day variety. You're ready for R. & R. the moment you've locked the front door behind you and headed for that piece of iron you should have traded in 18 months ago because it's a long way to your favorite holiday spot . . . and getting there is no vacation. But it should be. And can be. With a little help from Auto-Ready. We'll rent you a reliable, air-conditioned 1972 creampuff that is so enjoyable to drive even the freeways may seem like an afternoon at Malibu (well, not quite). But you'll like it enough to think about leasing. And Auto-Ready is ready again. Any make, any model, any and all options. At the most agreeable rates this side of Phase II Plus, day-in - day-out Individual service that makes leasing from Auto-Ready a personal pleasure, not just a smart business arrangement. Rent or lease, with a new car from Auto-Ready your vacation will begin when you do. Not a day or so later.

New Used Cars or Used New Cars?

Whatever you call them, Auto-Ready has them. A nice selection of returned 1970 & 1971 lease cars with air and other popular options. You won't find anything like them advertised on the late, late show. These cars have been beautifully maintained and serviced by practical Auto-Ready customers who planned to return them to us at a profit. Now it's your turn to profit. But please don't wait. These cars won't. Check the prices and you'll know why. Call or visit Auto-Ready today. Phone: 624-3721.
