'Tokyo Rose' case pursued as thesis

SAN FRANCISCO-Col. (retired) John J. Hada, a native of San Francisco, is writing his master's thesis at the Univ. of San Francisco centering on Mrs. Iva Toguri ("Tokyo Rose") D'Aquino.

Hada, who retired from the U.S. military service after 25 years recently, said that he took interest in the "Tokyo Rose" case because he felt the Japanese American woman "didn't get the fair shake" in her treason trial in San Francisco and in the kind of treatment she has received from the U.S. government.

He is in constant touch with Attorneys Ted Tamba and Wayne Collins, who have been longtime counsel for Mrs. D'Aquino, both of whom have expressed high opinion Ushiba to speak of Col. Hada.

It may also help the National Planning Commission, whose nucleus meets in April in Chicago.

In other words, this particular Tri-District Meeting will give strong impetus to the JACL vehicle now in the hands of new helmsmen to slip into high gear. Not too many weeks will have passed before the entire National JACL Board convenes for its midsummer interim session at Los Angeles.

Now that the chapters have spoken (57 for, 7 against and 29 passing) for implementing the Northern California-Western Nevada District resolution to construct a JACL Building in San Francisco, the 40 chapters in the three districts which voted in favor ought to be represented at the Tri-District for what develops may determine when the real push begins. The collected thinking of the chapters will have a great bearing.

JACL's boycott of Hilton hotels will assume a new force with Tri-District determination. The cause of Asian Americans within JACL, within state education and communities can be further motivated. RELINQUISH THE SECURITY BLANKET

Philadelphia

For some years now this writer has been seeking to pry loose the so-called Endowment Fund so that the money might be put to good use on current, critical needs. The fund, which totals somewhere in the neighborhood of $400 thousand, depending on the securities barometer, was launched in the late 40's as a "war chest" to meet future "emergencies", which some defined as something in the magnitude of another evacuation or the like, while others spoke in terms of a $1 million goal for size

Now I'm not against money. But if clutching onto the fund lulls us in any degree into a sense of false security, if we deceive ourselves into believing even for a moment that gazing upon six figures stretched across a ledger sheet provides some kind of a shield to protect our welfare in an "emergency", if fiscal preoccupation in any way displaces personal involvement and action, if fiscal goals dull our senses as to where it's all at-people-then for our own well-being and restoration of vigor, I would (and do) urge JACL to ourselves of this burden so that we no longer continue to be led astray by reliance upon icons.

MIXED-UP PRIORITIES

With justified disgust we often hear about the upside-down priorities of our own society and government, of our spending billions to kill people while resisting the needs of our schools, our needy, our elderly, our farmers and so on. Some months ago I read where our government spends, for every man, woman and child in the United States: $410 for war-making, $125 of that for our pogroms in Vietnam; $19.50 for getting to the moon. At the very same time, medical science continues to warn us that of the people living in the United States today, one-fourth or 52 mil-1,734.34 lion will suffer cancer; that of this number 37 million will die from cancer. That's wiping out Los Angeles about 16 times over. And so our government spends on cancer, for every man, woman and child . . . 89 cents. History will surely record this period of our

These are not the times for passivity to human needs displaced by fiscal preoccupation with a fund that sits mute and indifferent. Invest in people, now, so that we shall minimize the danger of an "emergency" but should one arise, then we can meet it with concerned peoples. Not a Maginot Line.

Dear Friend,

Join JACL today, Why? Because JACL, the only National organization actively concerned about the welfare and well-being of Americans of Asian ancestry, can thereby continue to be an effective advocate to protect their rights and gain equal opportunities. Because JACL believes in continuing its efforts to promote and support remedial and corrective legislation by maintaining a full-time office in Washington, D.C.

Because JACL supports the concept that the National organization is no stronger than the collective strength of its local chapters and district councils.

Because JACL seeks to promote the development of Regional Offices which will provide needed technical assistance for its membership and aid in the strengthening of local chapters. Because JACL believes that it should accept its share of responsibility and work collaboratively with other ethnic groups and human relations organizations to bring about equality among all persons. Because you and I, as Americans, believe that only as we work together as a team can we mount the kinds of activities and program that will be meaningful and enduring.

We need you to join us in this effort. Join JACL today! HENRY T. TANAKA National President

BON VOYAGE-Ken and Yuri Yamaguchi cut cake at a farewell party as the successful Pasadena optometrist and active JACLer embarks on studies toward the Buddhist minstry. Over 80 well-wishers were present at the San Kwo Low Feb. 7. Standing are Rinban Ryuei Masuoka (left) of the Los Angeles Hompa Hongwanji and his longtime friend Kay Iizuka, county arboretum commissioner, who emceed the proceedings. Ken, 51 will leave in March to enroll at Ryukoku University, Kyoto. His wife and two daughters will follow in June. Their older sons will remain here in school. Dr. Yamaguchi, formerly president of the Buddhist Churches of America, decided upon the ministry when he saw the need for more English-speaking Buddhist ministers. Two years of study precede ordination.
