(L.A. Times, Oct. 27) The Japanese American community objects to the use of the "Evacuation Issue" in the present campaign and would therefore like to set the record straight for the non-Japanese American commu-

S. I. Hayakawa's statement that the incarceration of the Japanese Americans was good and that only 10% to 20% of the Japanese would disagree with him is completely false. To use his analogy it would seem that he would be telling the Jewish people the Nazi persecution was good for them because it helped push me formation of mcdern Israel.

In the Sept. 1 issue of The Times, Harry Kubo, who is the president of the Committee Against Proposition 14, ran a full-page ad indicating that issue is the same as the loss of rights in the incarceration! of the Japanese Americans. He is very naive or is being used by bigger interest groups, and once again the Japanese American community objects to having the "Evacuation Issue" utilized as a political issue for private interests. The propositicn has nothing to do with the less of rights for the 110,000

American citizens in 1942. The Japanese American community wishes that both Hayakawa and Kubo would stick to the issues in their respective campaigns and not use the Japanese American community or the "Evacuaticn Issue" for political expediency. HENRY S. SAKAI

Recalls sermon as 442nd chaplain

HONOLULU - Congregations of several churches as well as fellow members of the Lions Club honored the Rev. Hiro Higuchi for his nearly halfcentury of service to the community at a gala testimonial banquet here on Oct. 3. He will be 70 in January.

The pastor emeritus of Manoa Valley Church, Higuchi was ordained in 1935 after graduating from Oberlin College and attending Univ. of Southern California where he met his wife, the former Hisako Watanabe of Los Angeles. He organized and served the Waipahu Community Church until 1950-taking time out only for WW2 as chaplain of the 442nd Regimental Combat Team.

An arden pacifist before the war. Higuchi made at least a partial about face: "When I saw 135 members of my YM-CA group had volunterred for the Army, I said I had to go with them," he recalled.
