CHAPTER BOARD MEETING MAY 21 TACKLES IMPORTANT ISSUES:

The Seattle Crime Prevention Advisory Commission asks that the Seattle Chapter submit names to be considered by the Commission for one of six spots to be filled by appointment from the community at large.

Purposes of the Commission are as follows; 1. To develop local consciousness of the need for mutual cooperation and understanding between citizens and public safety representatives, 2. To increase recognition by the citizens of their civic responsibility to give assistance and cooperation to the police for the maintenance of public safety and the improvement of crime prevention, 3. To provide opportunities for citizens to meet with their area law enforcement officers, 4. to make recommendations for improving local protection and, where appropriate, to assist law enforcement personnel on the implementation of crime prevention programs, and 5. To encourage active citizen participation in city government.

Any member who wishes to submit names to the board please phone President Jiro Aoki, EA 5 3640, days, or PA 3 6061, nights. Names should be called in before May 21 the night of the Board meeting. Any member may attend the meeting and submit a name.

The May Board meeting will continue with rules, procedures, and criteria for committees particularly the By-Laws and Scholarship Committees. The Directory committee will probably also have a report for discussion. Possibility of sponsorship of the Imperial Drum and Bugle Corps by the Chapter will also be brought up, so MEMBERS come and enter the discussion or argument as the case may be. A lively discussion always livens the meeting. Be there this Wednesday, May 21 from 7:45 p.m. We believe in PEOPLE PARTICIPATION!!! --Don Kazama

MORE THAN 200 KEGLERS VIE IN SEATTLE JACL BOWLING TOURNAMENT

Almost unnoticed outside the bowling world was the annual Seattle JACL Nisei Bowling Tournament held April 25-27 at the Imperial Lanes. More than 200 bowlers took part including Vancouver, BC contingent. Harry Yoshimura won the men's singles event with 698 while Marie Fujii topped the women's singles with 676. Mixed doubles event with Amy Seko and Ray Otani knocking the pins for 1303 series to win by 18 pins over the nearest competitors. Bowling scores are summarized on page 2.

Fred Takagi was tournament chairman and Miye Ishikawa tournament secretary. Others assisting with this annual event were Yoyo Mikami, Tommy Namba, Lillian Nakano, Hattie Hiroo, Joe Ohashi, and Mickey Oyama. Thanks for the job well done.

CANDIDATES SOUGHT FOR GREATER SEATTLE JAPANESE QUEEN

The search for more queen candidates to represent Greater Seattle Japanese Community in Seafair and other activities goes on. Guidelines for selections include age 18-21 and must be of Japanese ancestry. A reception to welcome all interested candidates will be held at the home of Mrs. George Iwasaki, 11615 78th South on May 18 from 2-5 p.m. A reception for candidates at Consul General residence June 15 from 3-5 p.m. and to hear talk on poise and grooming. First judging at Bush Garden from 1:30-4 p.m. at Bush Garden and final judging July 12 at the coronation ball. Applications for the queen contest has been sent to all the high schools in the Greater Seattle area. Interested candidates shall immediately call Mrs. George Iwasaki SP 2-4667 days or evenings or Mrs. John Iwasaki BA 8-0721 after 6 p.m. Helen Akita is the chairman assisted by Queen Jo Anne Iwasaki and a large committees staff.

STILL TIME TO PAY YOUR MEMBERSHIP DUES

The membership drive under chairman Tak Kubota passed the 500 mark this month. "We are setting up a committee to increase membership," Kubota said. "We anticipate that most of the One Thousand Club members will renew their Chapter membership." Membership application will be inserted with this newsletter. If you have already paid, give the application to your friends. A year's subscription of Pacific Citizen weekly newspaper comes with dues paid.

BENEFIT SUKIYAKI DINNER FOR BUDDHIST BOY SCOUTS

Boy Scout Troop 252 sponsored by the Seattle Buddhist Church, 1427 Main Street, will hold a sukiyaki dinner Sunday, May 25 from 12 noon to 7 p.m. The dinner will cost $2 per person and children 12 years and under $1. Tickets may be purchased at the door. Money will be raised to help send the vanguard of the Boy Scout Troop Drum and Bugle Corps and their all girl color guards to Japan tour in Aug. 1970 in time to participate in the Osaka World's Fair scout program. Mrs. Hats Higa and Akio Hoshino are cochairmen.

JAPANESE COMMUNITY TO HONOR WAR DEAD

The annual Community Memorial Day services will be held on Friday morning, May 30 from 10 a.m. on the site of the Nisei War Memorial Monument at Lakeview cemetery. The Rev. K. Hayatsu, presently an assistant at St. James Cathedral, will be the main speaker.

This year's observances will mark the 20th anniversary since the 21-foot rainbow granite monument was dedicated back in 1949. On the monument are inscribed the names of 54 Seattle area war deads. Wreaths will be placed at the base of the monument by the representatives of the Japanese community organizations including the JACL. John Matsumoto, Nisei Veteran's Committee chaplain, is the chairman for the services. John is also member of the Chapter board. Commander Kiyo Hashimoto of NVC urges everyone to attend the services this Memorial Day.

70TH ANNIVERSARY FOR JAPANESE BAPTIST

Japanese Baptist Church will celebrate their 70th anniversary in a week long rite beginning May 18 with Dr. Jitsuo Morikawa, Sec of the Div of Evangelism of the American Baptist Convention as the principal speaker. The open house will be held Wednesday the 21st starting at 7:30 p.m. Refreshments will be served. The climax will be the anniversary banquet in the Baptist gym on Friday the 23rd. Dr. A. Hintz of the Seattle First Baptist Church will speak. Tribute will be made to the issei, 80 years and older. Limited tickets for the banquet might be available by calling Kiyo Yabuki (GL 4-5898).

Japanese Baptist Church Parallels the History of Seattle Issei
Japanese Baptists date back to the time when there were only 125 Japanese in Seattle. Towards the close of 1891, Seattle First Baptist Church (then on the corner of 4th and James, the site of new city hall), three Japanese young men appeared, among them C. Y. Akiyama and Fukumatsu Okazaki and made known their desire to learn the English language. With the assist from Rev. G. J. Burchett of the First Baptist Church and Mr. J.W. Sherwood, a small room was rented downtown. Japanese Baptist Mission was established with classes being held three nights a week. In May 1892 with Mrs. L.V. Ward as a teacher, four of the students were baptized, the first for the Japanese in Seattle. By 1893, a house at 515 James Street was rented. Akiyama and Okazaki were ordained as minister and returned to Japan to preach. The mission continued to flourish, moving again to larger quarter on 418 Jefferson Street which contained lodging house of 27 rooms. Many Japanese immigrants were made to feel at home upon arrival here. Rev. Okazaki returned from Japan in 1897. Japanese Baptist was formally chartered as a church in 1899 with her first home on 624 Jackson Street in the heart of Nihonmachi. The building still stands. The present church structure was opened in 1922.

DILLON S. MYER SPEAKS TO IMPROMPTU GATHERING OF CHAPTER MEMBERS

A last minute call for dinner was organized May 2 at Bush Garden for Mr. and Mrs. Dillon S. Myer, wartime chief of the WRA.

"The thing I'm happiest about is the fact that I am accepted still. It was a trying experience for all of us in the tearing up of business and family life," Myer said. "It was entirely unnecessary and since it did happen, I'm glad that it turned out as well as it has.

"27 years after the fact, I'm so happy to see so many successful people, who are not bowed down for the experience and makes him throw out his chest to say how proud he is."

On the question of Chief Justice Earl Warren, he feels that Justice Warren is making apologies through his records on civil rights matter in his "Warren's Court." According to Myer the turning point in the attitude towards Japanese was in 1943 when Representative Martin Dies, Chairman of the House Select Committee to Investigate Un-American Activities, called witnesses to appear before his committee in 1943 on the activities of the evacuees. The action of the Dies Committee so incensed the sense of public justice that the public opinion mushroomed in favor of the evacuees right then and there, ironical though it may sound.

TOKIWA GOLF CLUB held their monthly tournament May 18 at the Jefferson Golf Course. Results in net scores were released as follow: FIRST FLIGHT--1. Flo Teshima 73, 2. Miye Yoshitake 76, 3. (tie) June Kumasaka and Sada Uchida 81; SECOND FLIGHT--1. Mariko Taki 76, 2. Mary Yoshijima 77, 3. (tie) Lillian Yoshino and Asako Okubo 78; THIRD FLIGHT--1. Gene Hori 75, 2. Bessie Okada 83, 3. Aya Shimomura 88. The 40-member club is headed by Fumi Yamasaki and Helen Akita.

DR. KITANO EXPLAINS THE SANSEI SIDE OF THE STORY DURING COMMUNITY MEETING

Dr. Harry Kitano, PhD, Associate Professor at the School of Social Welfare, UCLA and author of "Japanese Americans: Evolution of a Subculture," spoke April 16 at the Blaine Memorial Methodist Church. He also spoke to dinner group earlier at the Four Seas Restaurant.

Sansei are quite critical of nisei parents according to Dr. Kitano. For instance, nisei has a tendency to speak in generalization to the sansei. Nisei would say, "I think I'll go fishing tomorrow." The sansei is expected to decipher this statement to mean "You won't be able to borrow the car since I'll be using it." Generalized conversation works to nisei's advantage since he can twist his answers to go in either direction without incriminating himself, much to sansei's consternation. When the parents buy a car they would invariably pick the lower priced model when they could have gone "first class." This is enough to "blow the sansei cool." Sansei constantly feel the "structural restraint" where the constant preaching is on spending wisely, get the most for your money as if we were still living in the depression days. This again is the source of sansei displeasure.

On JACL, Dr. Kitano says the organization should reflect current thinking and should reevaluate itself periodically and to seek ethnic reidentity. By the very presence of middle-aged adults, Kitano believes, the development of young leaders will be hindered.

Needless to say, Dr. Kitano's presentation is most unorthodox and thought provoking.

Very few copies of Dr. Kitano's book are available here by calling Mrs. Sally Kazama, PA 5-3472. The cost is $3 plus few cents postage.
