SEATTLE CHAPTER JACL

MEMBERSHIP MEETING

A general business meeting of JACL members will be held at the Buddhist Church this Friday evening, August 11th, from 8 PM. Some of the matters to be discussed are mentioned elsewhere in this bulletin. Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

A JACL OFFICE?

Your officers have been considering the possibilities of obtaining office space in a convenient downtown location for transaction of JACL business. Such an office could be used to house JACL records, answer phone calls and inquiries, and for committee meetings. We have a good proposition in mind, but the approval of the membership will be required before we go into active negotiations on the subject.

JACL DANCE

It's been a long time since the JACL sponsored a regular "open to the public" dance, and some of our members have been suggesting one as being a very good idea. If held sometime in September, our JACL Queen could be officially crowned at the dance. We'll leave it up to the membership.

ADC DRIVE

The time has come for the annual ADC Drive, which should be completed before the opening of the National Convention. The quota for Seattle this year is $3,500. As indicated by National Director Mas Satow, this may be the last ADC Drive which we may be called upon to make.

QUEEN CONTEST

By the time you receive this, the Seattle JACL Queen Contest will be over and the name of the winner announced. As this is written, however, we're entirely in the dark, so to speak, and all we know is that one of the following fair candidates will be our Queen: Takae Tanino, May Tsutsumoto, Betty Noji, and Marian Kono. Financing of the Queen's trip to Chicago (and also for the official chapter delegates) remains to be discussed by the membership.

SEATTLE TO BE CONVENTION HOST

At the PNDC meeting held in Seattle on July 16th, Seattle was officially selected as the site of the 1951 District Convention, to be held during the Labor Day weekend. It is planned to make this affair a "miniature national convention", a high point of the year's activities for all JACL chapters in the entire Northwest. Since a great deal of work will be required, it isn't too early to start thinking about it right now. If you have any bright ideas, bring them out into the open.

THE NATIONAL ELECTION

Official ballots for the election of our national officers are being mailed to PAID-UP MEMBERS in good standing. All ballots should be returned by August 31st. If you are a paid-up member and we have missed you inadvertently, please call the Corresponding Secretary, Miss Takako Yoda, 2102 Spokane Street, Rainier 6547, and a ballot will be mailed without delay.

RESERVATIONS FOR NATIONAL CONVENTION

Members expecting to attend the National Convention at Chicago (September 28 to October 2), are reminded that reservations should be made before September 1st. Information and forms may be obtained from the Chapter President.

A FINAL REMINDER

We'd like to see a big turnout at the JACL membership meeting this Friday evening. It's a good chance to get acquainted with one another, and to contribute your "gripes" and constructive suggestions, too. Your officers will cooperate by making the meetings as snappy and interesting as possible. Our past meetings have been well attended; let's have even more at the coming meeting!
