

BOARD MEETING. The April meeting will be held Wednesday, April 20 from 8 p.m. at 526 South Jackson Street office. President George Iwasaki will preside. One of the major topic will be the progress and strategy report of the Land Law Repeal campaign as the crucial drive will be accelerated in trying to reach the anticipated $8,000 goal. (Movie project netted $3,000). These meetings are lively if last month was any indication. So mark the calendar for next Wednesday as the welcome mat is in place for all members to attend.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE. The current Seattle Chapter membership drive has topped the 350 mark but is still short of the anticipated goal of 500. However, there was a gain of 90 paid up members this past month. A handy application form is again enclosed for your convenience in renewing your 1966 membership. Dues are still $6 and an additional $4 for spouse membership. Subscription to Pacific Citizens comes with the membership. Chairman for the members drive, Jiro Aoki, requests that dues be sent in as soon as possible.

RESIGNATION. President-elect Eddie K. Shimomura's letter of resignation from his elected office of the Seattle Chapter was read before the board. Due to the added responsibility in his work, he would not be able to assume full responsibility of presidency for the next term. The board accepted the resignation.

RECEPTION FOR HIGH GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL. Seattle's Filipino, Chinese, and Japanese are planning a joint reception-dinner to honor Secretary Robert Clifton Weaver at the Bush Garden on April 12. Washington Senator Warren G. Magnuson was to introduce the honorary guest. Weaver was appointed by the President to fill the cabinet post for the newly created Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). He is the first Negro to fill the cabinet post and received his Ph. D. from Harvard. He authored four books on urban problems.

NATIONAL TOURNAMENT BID. The 1968 tournament was awarded to Seattle JACL and Seattle Nisei Bowling Association. Seattle was the host city back in 1958 for the National JACL Bowling tournament.

JACL SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM. President George Iwasaki, Alan Kumamoto (National Youth Director), and chairwoman of education committee Natalie Hayashida are completing the code book to help select equitably all applicants for the National JACL Scholarship.

ELECTRICAL CONTRACTOR TO AID EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY. Communication has been received from the executive secretary of the National Electrical Contractors Association representing all member chapters that they are sincerely interested in the current program of equal employment opportunity for all. Request has been made to the Seattle Chapter to inform the public that any inquiries for assistance in job opportunities in electrical contracting work should be directed to Local Union 77, I.B.E.W. located at 1718 Melrose Avenue, Seattle.

YOUNG ADULTS. On March 18, 19, and 20, the Seattle Young Adults hosted the Northwest District Youth Council with dinner-dance at the Benjamin Franklin, business meeting at the Olympic Hotel and basketball tourney at the Franklin High gym and St. Peter's Episcopal Church gym. Mixer was held at the Blaine Memorial Methodist Church. Plans are being made for the caravan of delegates to assemble in Seattle, Tacoma, and southward to Portland as train continues to load passengers headed for National Confab in San Diego, California.

BOWLING TOURNAMENT WINNERS LIST RELEASED

A very successful Nisei Handicap Bowling tournament was concluded by the Seattle Chapter last April 1-3 at the Imperial Lanes. Co-chairmen Yosh Tsue and Miye Ishikawa completed the intricate and time consuming task which goes with chairing these positions and we owe our thanks to them for the job well done.

Trophy winners together with top cash prize went to Bush Garden for the men's team, Joe's Broiler for the women's team, while Ray Ko and Etsuko Nomura (Vancouver BC) won the men's and women's singles event respectively. Mixed doubles trophy went to Wilma and Sho Hiroo.

DON'T CONFUSE ME WITH FACTS, MY MIND'S MADE UP

Gordon W. Alport, professor of psychology, Harvard University, once defined ethnic prejudice as an antipathy based upon a faulty and inflexible generalization that may be felt or expressed, and directed toward a group as a whole or toward an individual because he is a member of that group.

In Alport's book Nature of Prejudice, he states that a common corollary of the attitude of prejudice is ethnocentrism--the attitude where one looks with favor upon the ways of his own group and judges other groups by the values of his own. The familiar ways of his own group are believed to be the natural and right and superior ways to the less familiar ones of other groups.

The most serious aspect of prejudice is its effect on those toward whom it is directed. It is often expressed in discrimination--in segregation--in physical attacks against person and property--in jokes and name calling and develops precisely those qualities of behavior that the dominant group dislikes such as hypersensitivity and chip on the shoulder attitudes.

The resulting attitudes developed by those to whom prejudice has been directed are expressed in distinct kinds of personality patterns. These include the lowering of aspiration and motivation as protection against further frustrations; a flashy display of jewels, clothes and cars, that is symbolic of status; clowning; and aggression, sometimes physical--especially among the lower social economic class--toward the dominant group, other minorities, and one's own group.

According to Alport, these personality patterns may be formed as early as by six or seven years of age.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 20 ABOLISHING RESTRICTION ON LAND OWNERSHIP

QUESTION: Why bother to repeal it?

ANSWER: Because it violates the basic American principles of equality and fair play as we understand them today. This law still stands as a grim reminder of a bigoted time and situation of which we can't be proud.

As long as the law is on the books—even though nullified—it is a kind of legal slur, an implication of "second class citizenship" for our thousands of citizens of oriental ancestry who have contributed so much to the growth and safety of our community in Washington.
