JACL NATIONAL CONVENTION will be held from August 31st. through September 3rd, at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel in San-Francisco. Pre-registration tickets are now available through President James Matsuoka. A package deal is available at more than twenty per cent savings. The Theme for the 14th. Biennial Convention is "CHANGING PERSPECTIVES" activities include: Mixer, Luncheons, Fashion Show, Outing, Banquet and the grand Sayonara Ball. Make your Labor Day Weekend plans to include this!

Paul Kashino reports that the Membership Drive is going well. Final figures are not yet available, but he and Tad Yamaguchi will submit a complete report later.

Plans for the Japanese Language School at Edison have been postponed. Dr. Fukuda and Mr. H. T. Kubota are chairmen of a committee to survey the demand in our community for such a school, and consider using 1414 Weller Street as classroom.

William Y. Minbu and Kelly Yamada are named to represent the Pacific Northwest District for National JACL officers.

This year's picnic will be a separate one, on the community-wide basis. Kiyo Tada is investigating several places for an appropriate setting for this year.

Be sure to read Elmer Ogawa's "The Northwest Picture" column in the Pacific Citizen. Elmer gets around and gives a very comprehensive background of subjects which are of local importance and getting national publicity for them.

Mailing Addresses will be double-checked this month. If you or your friends are not correctly listed, please call James Matsuoka at EL-2303 or Art Susumi MA-0949.
