APRIL 1985

VOLUME 22 NO. 4

CHAPTER COMMITTEES NEED VOLUNTEERS

One of this year's Seattle Chapter goals is to have the composition of all of its committees be half non-board personnel. "Please let us hear from you," says president-elect Bob Sato. "We wish we could ask you individually and personally for your support and assistance for our many goals."

The chapter has dedicated officers and board members putting in lots of hours and effort, but the chapter needs volunteers who can spare a few hours a month to help with its goals and activities.

The following are brief descriptions of the chapter's 29 committees, and a listing of the committees' goals and activities for this year. If you are interested in finding out more about any of the committees, or would like to volunteer, please fill out the coupon on page 4, and someone will contact you.

HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE MARCH BOARD MEETING

Roger Shimizu from the Anti-Discrimination committee reported that the ad agency for Auburn Valley Mitsubishi has agreed that their television ad was in poor taste and will discontinue the ad. In the future they will be more sensitive to Asians.

Bob Sato and Gail Tanaka reported on a new program developed by the Executive committee to better monitor the chapter goals established in February. The committees will report to an assigned vice president, who will then report the committee activities to the other vice presidents and to the president.

The board approved the use of our membership list by Keiro for their fundraising efforts.

Ken Nakano reported that Dave Okimoto, Jerry Shigaki, Roger Shimizu, Dave Hoekendorf, Ruthann Kurose and himself represented the Seattle Chapter at a meeting between Puget Sound JACL representatives and Koichi Obata, immigration section director of Japan's Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Obata is in the U.S. to review and study the Japanese immigration policies.

Mako Nakagawa told the board about the award given Aki Kurose and Vernon Oshiro by the Seattle Committee for Excellence in Education. Kurose and Oshiro were two of ten Seattle Public School teachers to receive the award last month.

CHAPTER BOARD MEETING ON APRIL 17

The next Seattle Chapter board meeting is on Wednesday, April 17, at 7:30 p.m. in the JACL office. All are welcome to attend.

REDRESS BILLS PASS STATE SENATE, MOVE ON TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

On March 13 the state Senate passed Senate Bill 3369 and Senate Joint Memorial 104. SB 3369 would permit municipalities to award redress to former Japanese American employees who were unjustly fired or forced to resign from their jobs during World War II. This will allow the former Seattle Public School clerks who were awarded redress by the school board last year to finally receive payment.

SJM 104 asks Congress and the president to enact the recommendations of the Commission on Wartime Relocation and Internment of Civilians.

SB 3369 was then sent to the House Local Government Committee. However, on the bill's deadline day the committee adjourned before voting on the bill. This means the bill will not be going to the full House.

SJM 104 is in the Rules Committee and is expected to go to a floor vote in a few days. The bill must pass a committee vote before April 19. JACL members and redress supporters are urged to call their legislators immediately to ask them to support SJM 104. The toll-free legislative hotline is 1-800-562-6000.
