J A C L NEWSLETTER

SEATTLE CHAPTER

JUNE 1986

VOLUME 23 NO. 6

PRESIDENT SATO REPLIES TO CONGRESSMAN SWIFT

On April 24, Congressman Al Swift--26 District, Washington--replied to Seattle Chapter JACL members Cherry Kinoshita and Chuck Kato concerning a letter they had written him urging his support for redress. Swift stated that "direct payment to the victims trivializes the events and smacks of 'conscience money' or of putting this behind us as a people by buying our way out instead of genuinely recognizing the gravity of the offense."

On June 1, Seattle Chapter JACL President Bob Sato wrote to Congressman Swift: "We the victims are willing to accept the provisions of HR422 and S1053 as a token symbol of apology and compensation to correct a grave injustice. We the victims are the only people who have the right to judge whether redress actions trivializes the great crime committed by this nation.

"For the honour of this nation and to show the world that this nation is fair to all segments of her own citizenry, I challenge you to uphold the principles for which the Constitution stand. Americans of Japanese ancestry defended it, I believe we can expect you to uphold it. It's time for you in Congress and the President to do what is right and cast away the dark chapter from our nation's history by making HR422/S1053 become reality!"

Special Reports

FORMER SCHOOL EMPLOYEES DONATE TO JACL

Contributions totaling about $10,000 were donated to various redress and JACL causes by eleven of the former Seattle School District employees who were recipients of $5,000 each through the signing of Washington State House Bill 1415 in April.

The Seattle Chapter Redress Committee's efforts in passage of the school board resolution and HB1415 were acknowledged by the former school employees with a donation of $5,500. An amount of $3,000 was contributed to the Legislative Education Committee (LEC), $1,000 to the Pacific Northwest JACL, and $350 to the Seattle Chapter JACL Endowment Fund.

The generous donors were Teru Kiyohara, Alice Kawanishi, Ai Koshi, Jane Okada, May Namba, Toyo Cary, Masa Hirano and Sally Kazama, all of Seattle. Out of town donors were Yuri Nakata of Tolovana Park, OR; May Higa of Sierra Madre, CA; and Chizuko Nakamura of Woodside, N.Y.

A letter signed by 13 of the former school employees and addressed to Jerry Shigaki, chair of the JACL Committee for HB1415, stated, "We would like to express appreciation to you and members of your committee who devoted endless hours of time and effort toward the successful outcome of HB1415. If it were not for the dedicated members of JACL who are committed to eliminating civil rights injustices, we believe the bill would not have passed."

The Seattle School Board resolution effort was co-chaired by Mako Nakagawa and Cherry Kinoshita. Additional JACL members who testified or lobbied in the two-year redress effort include Naomi Sanchez, Becky Sasaki, Ruth Woo, Joan Yoshitomi, Ted Masumoto, Marsha Tadano-Long, and PWND Regional Director Tim Otani. Other key persons who assisted in letter writing, hot-line calling and organizational support were Wayne Kimura, Chuck Kato, May Sasaki, Massie Tomita, Ken Nakano and many others. Legal assistance was provided by Rod Kaseguma, Roger Shimizu and Tim Gojio.

The Seattle Chapter JACL thanks the following members for their donations in support of redress during the month of May: Howard Sakura, Henry S. Tatsumi, Toshiko Tsubahara, J.S. Tsukuno, Miyeko Ishihara, Ed Shigeru & Miyo Kiba, Zenji Shibayama, Fudge Shiogi, Henry Todo, Harry Tsutsumi and Fumiye Masunaga.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Throughout the United States, the campaign to win passage of the redress bill in Congress will require a mounting crescendo of telephone calls and letters to Congressmen, Senators and the President. Passage of redress is important to Japanese Americans--the victims. But did you stop to realize that it is even more important to the nation that the rights stated in the Constitution be validated?

CONTINUED

I'm pleased to say that members and friends of the Seattle Chapter have been keeping the redress contributions coming to support this national effort. Please make or continue your contributions, and also, write to your Congressmen and Senators for early passage. Wayne Kimura, Tim Gojio, Cherry Kinoshita, Chuck Kato and their committee have been working long and hard on this issue.

Some past members have allowed their membership to lapse. We will be mounting a special effort to regain their support. It's very important that JACL be strong during this crucial time. If you would like to know what this Chapter is doing, let me or Public Relations Chairperson Wendy Watanabe know. We will be more than happy to speak with you.

David Okimoto, immediate past president and I will be representing you at the July, 1986 National Convention in Chicago. I understand that we share one vote between us. Ben Nakagawa and Tomio Moriguchi are busy organizing their committee for the 1988 convention to be held in Seattle from August 6 to 10, 1988. Plan to stay home in 1988!

Closer to home, I was privileged to lay a wreath on behalf of JACL during the Memorial Day service sponsored by the Nisei Vets at Lakeview Cemetery. I commend the Nisei Veterans Committee for carrying on this community service in memory of lost buddies for all these years.

Bob Sato
President
