FIRST JACL GOLF TOURNAMENT TO BE HELD JULY 19TH

The first community-wide golf tournament will be sponsored by the local JACL chapter on Sunday, July 19, at the Jefferson and Allenmore Golf Courses with sign-ups being taken by club secretaries. It will be open to all golfers with handicaps as well as those without. Those without will be handicapped by the Calloway system.

Flights for men, women and juniors are planned. Juniors include those up to 16 years of age and they must not have been a member of any high school team.

Entry fee is $6 while for juniors it is $2. Prizes galore will be awarded at the banquet preceded by a cocktail hour at Gim Ling's. The dinner and cocktails are included in the entry fee.

Min Tai and Kazie Sasaki are at the head of this ambitious undertaking.

PURPOSE OF JACL

by Tak Kubota

As the 18th Biennial National Convention of the Japanese American Citizens League draws near, we are reminded of the first national convention of the Japanese American Citizens League which was held in September of 1930 in Seattle. The purpose of the J.A.C.L. as stated by our founders was as follows:

"The League seeks to inculcate in its members and other Americans a spirit of loyal Americanism by developing civic consciousness, and by positive education toward practice of American democratic institutions. It strives to improve the welfare of American citizens of Japanese descent through fostering racial tolerance and through clear understanding and cooperation between them and their fellow Americans of other extractions."

Let us pause and reflect for a moment the significance of these words so nobly expressed by the leadership of that era. It goes without saying that we have made tremendous strides toward achieving these goals. Nevertheless, we must continually bear in mind that eternal vigilance is most essential because in another era of hate and hysteria all of the gains can be wiped out. Let us not forget at the same time the plight of our fellow negro Americans. We are reminded of the old proverb which states, "When the house of your neighbor is on fire, your own is in danger." It is very easy to say that this is not our fight that these people should earn their rights as it was necessary for the Japanese Americans. Is it necessary that we earn these so-called "rights"? Let us not forget that these basic rights are guaranteed to all Americans irrespective of race, creed, color or national origin by the supreme law of the land, our federal constitution. In analyzing their problem, I would

Queen To Be Crowned

The suspense will be over on Saturday, June 27th, when the identity of the Queen of the Japanese Community for the year 1964-65 will be revealed to the public for the first time. It will be either Colleen Tokuda, Eileen Suyama, or Dorothy Harada, the three girls who were selected as princesses in a competition at Bush Garden recently. The new queen will preside over the Japanese float in the annual Seafair Parade and automatically becomes a Seafair princess.

The semi-formal affair will be held in the beautiful Spanish Ballroom of the Olympic Hotel and Chairman Jiro Aoki promises an entertaining evening with Max Pillar and his 11-piece orchestra furnishing the music. Dancing begins at 9:30 and the coronation will take place at 10 o'clock when Queen Carolyn Murotani will relinquish her crown. Fuzzy Fujiyama, genial insurance man, will emcee the affair.

Tickets to the gala social event will cost $6.00 per couple and $4.00 per couple for juniors or students. Hard working committee members serving under Jiro include Kay Fukuma, Chuck Furuta, Jim Hata, Joan Seko, Agnes and Frank Hattori, Tama Murotani, Yoshiko Tokita, James Murakami, Tick Suyama, Kimi Nakanishi, James Baba, Jr.

DANCE CLUB COMMITTEES NAMED

Hiram and Helen Akita, newly-elected co-chairmen of the JACL Dance Club, have named the following to assist them in the club's activities: Nachi and Ruth Hayashi, music; John and Hisako Aoki, treasurer; Dick and Fumi Yamasaki, membership; Norio & Marge Harui, dance class coordinators. Niles and Marguerite Brewster are the advisors to the group.

Dance classes are being conducted all through the summer and interested parties are asked to contact the Harui's at PA. 3-2024.

Membership dues are $4.00 per person or $8.00 per couple

The President's Corner

By Dr. Terrance M. Toda

This is the time of year when high school and college graduates swell the ranks of those seeking employment. To many Nisei (here used as one of Japanese ancestry), this is a tremendous problem. In cases where he or she has had education, technical training or experience in fields where Niseis have previously "proven" themselves, it is not so much of a problem. If an opening occurs, there is better than even chance of securing a job.

Always there is the problem of finding an opportunity to prove one's reliability, conscientiousness, and capacity for work . . . the usual attributes which make Nisei more in demand for employers who are looking for competence, loyalty and high level of performance.

Therefore, progress is measured in terms of education, skills, training, professional capacity. It is ever so important for the Nisei to do well. As each make inroads into new fields and are accepted on the basis of ability and capability, those who follow have opportunities for higher levels of performance and achievement.

AJA's Job Opportunity Dept.

The Newsletter editor has assigned to us a subject on which volumes might be written, but thanks to the limitations of space, it will have to be sketchy and consequently uninformative - - that is, comparison of employment opportunities for AJA's (American of Japanese Ancestry) a generation ago and now.

Search back through the records of the 20's and the 30's, and you will find that it was more the rule than the exception that a Nisei would struggle through a course of higher education, architecture, engineering, business administration or journalism, we may add, without being able to find himself a job in his chosen field.

Biggest hurdle to overcome was the prejudice existant at the time, but an attendant complication was the general lack of job opportunities for college

Phil Hayasaka writes—

(Ed. note: Phil Hayasaka is Exec. Secy. Human Rights Commission)

"A strong America requires the assurance of full and equal rights of all citizens, of any race or color . . ." John F. Kennedy, State of the Union message, January 12, 1962.

There still exists in the United States—and in Seattle—a tragic abyss between this principle of full and equal rights and the fact of denial of these rights to many Americans.

Recognizing this unfortunate truth, Gordon S. Clinton, then Mayor of Seattle, and the City Council, in July of 1962, established the Citizens Advisory Committee on Minority Housing.

The Advisory Committee reported that minority groups are indeed being denied equal opportunities because of discrimination. The Committee recommended that a Human Rights Commission be created in an effort to alleviate this situation.

In July of 1963, the Mayor and Council established the Seattle Human Rights Commission, composed of 12 members appointed by the Mayor to serve three year terms.

The City of Seattle—with a population of well over a half million—is made up of people of all races, colors, religions and national origins. With its growth have arisen problems which can be attributed to these differences.

Through Seattle's years there have been several serious conflicts directed against minority groups.

In the City's infancy, there was what

National Confab Slated for July 1-4

amounted to war with the Klickitat Indians.

In February of 1882, riots broke out against the Chinese and martial law was declared. More than 300 Chinese were forced to leave the city.

In 1942, all Japanese and Japanese Americans were evacuated from the West Coast.

Today, the most sorely affected minority are the negroes—comprising about 5 per cent of Seattle's population—the city's largest racial minority.

Human Rights problems in the denial of equal opportunities in Seattle are concentrated in three major areas—employment, housing and education.

Viewing the negro situation, negro unemployment is 14 per cent according to most recent statistics, compared with 6 per cent among Caucasians. Eighty per cent of the negro population lives in the four square mile central area of Seattle. Several schools have nearly 100 per cent non-white enrollments.

Forming a cause—and—result circle, housing segregation perpetuates educational disadvantages, which result in limited employment opportunities, which in turn lead back to segregation in housing.

J. A. C. L. CIVIL RIGHTS COMMITTEE

As recommended by the Pacific Northwest District Council, the Seattle Chapter would like to organize a Civil Rights Committee.

The purpose, objectives and activities of this committee has not yet been specifically determined. In order to anticipate the reactions and the degree of participation from our members, we would appreciate the following information and receiving it as soon as possible.

Please check off any one or more of the below information requested, and mail to: DR. TERRANCE TODA, 676 So. Jackson St., Seattle, Wash. 98104; or to the JA CL REPORTER, 318 - 6th Avenue South, Seattle, Wash. 98104.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO:

- Know more about the current Civil Rights situation in Seattle through films, speakers, panels, discussions, workshops, seminars?
- Visit other groups and organizations to exchange information, insights, problems encountered, solutions to problems?
- Have interracial programs with Caucasians and other non-white groups to meet and learn more about each other?
- Work actively in promoting equal opportunities in employment, housing, etc.?
- Be a member of a steering committee to plan activities and programs for this committee?
- Would make an attempt to come to meetings of the Civil Rights Committee?
- Not interested in any of the above - - not interested in a Civil Rights Committee?

1964 Nisei Veterans Reunion

by Hideo Hoshide
Reunion Publicity Chairman

More than 500 out-of-state delegates and their families will be coming to Seattle at the end of July for the 1964 Nisei Veterans Reunion, and the hosting Nisei veterans of Seattle and vicinity are asking the entire community to help them welcome these visitors to our city and the Pacific Northwest.

The 4th national reunion, with headquarters in the Olympic Hotel, will be from Friday, July 31, through Tuesday, Aug. 4, and coincides with the opening of the exciting Seattle Seafair Week festivities. Most of the reunion activities are open to the general public as well.

On hand to extend official greetings to the delegates will be Miss Carolyn Sue Murotani, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Murotani. The '64 Reunion Queen was the Japanese Community Queen in last year's Seafair contest.

Many of the delegates will be coming from Hawaii by jets on Friday morning, and a gala reception is being planned at Sea-Tac Airport. A large crowd at the airport as they leave their planes will certainly leave a lasting impression upon the visitors, most of whom have never been on the mainland before.

One of the highlights of the reunion will be the main banquet on Saturday evening in the Grand Ballroom of the Olympic. Congressman Spark M. Matsunaga of Hawaii will be the keynote speaker. Governor Albert Rosellini, Mayor Dorm Braman and other civic dignitaries will be present. The dance following the dinner will feature the music of Mori Simon and his 10-piece orchestra.

On Sunday morning, a memorial service will be held at the Seattle Memorial Plaza and the general public is invited to attend. Rev. Hiro Higuchi of Honolulu, wartime chaplain of the 442nd Regimental Combat Team, will be the featured speaker. In the afternoon, a picnic will take place at Pine Lake resort, near Issaquah, Wash., where a community picnic lunch, and a salmon barbeque dinner will climax the day.

An all-day boat cruise and a tour of Victoria, Canada, on Monday will be enjoyed by the delegates, while sports events and sightseeing tours will keep everyone busy on Tuesday. The reunion will close with a Sayonara Banquet at the Bush Garden Teahouse Restaurant.

Anyone wishing to participate in the reunion may do so by purchasing an economy Local Package Plan, which includes the main reunion activities, the souvenir booklet, registration, etc. Inquiries may be directed to Mack Shoji and Mich Shimomura, co-chairmen of the Local Package Plan. Write to them, 1212 So. King St., Seattle 98144, or phone PA 3-3980 (Shoji) or PA 2-8540 (Shimomura).

graduates, especially in the Depression 30's.

Because of the limitations of space, perhaps it will be best to recall the nationally publicized career story of a former Seattleite to illustrate the problems that beset all of us, the Story of Minoru "Tinky" Yamasaki, designer of highly acclaimed architectural masterpieces all over the world. Like most of us, he worked in salmon canneries during the summer at $55 a month to earn winter time tuition. This Nisei with guts enough to leave the resulting unfortunate situation in Seattle, wound up packing chinaware for a New York importing house at subsistence wages, but then he finally hit the jackpot to gain world renown at his chosen profession.

Not all enjoyed the same good fortune. There are guys who graduated in architecture, for example, became discouraged at the pre-war situation, took up gardening and are still at it.

Many Nisei of a generation or more ago, undertook "schoolboy" jobs at $2, $3 a week or so. There was one guy who always managed to get the lucrative $5 a week jobs - - although he graduated in foreign trade at the U. of W., he kept his butler job, and today at the age of about 60, has more money in the bank, than many of the so-called successful businessmen, and travels extensively; to Japan and around the U.S. many times, and one trip around the world. Yet he does not own, or never did drive a car. No status symbols. Why join the rat race? Perhaps there is something to becoming content and resigned to the situation 35 years ago.

We've already exceeded our space allotment, so G'bye.

ELMER

P.S.—Contrary to popular belief, your reporter did not study journalism, but graduated in foreign trade, and had an enviable but not necessarily happy job in that field from 1928 to 1939.

Purpose of JAACL

consider it only fair and just that we give serious thought to this question, "Does our fellow negro American have control over the social forces which are at work?"

It is unfortunate that in any community and, ours is no exception, we have men and women who reap the benefits of J. A. C. L. who are either ignorant or cannot appreciate what is being done by our national or local organization or both which directly or indirectly makes it possible for them to enjoy the fruits of their labor. In other words, they reap the benefits but do not in the "true sense of the word," support it. On the other hand, traditionally, the Seattle chapter has had more thousand club members from the standpoint of the total local membership than any other chapter in the country. I believe this reflects well for the chapter as these are the very people who invariably financially support the activities of the community as well as their personal participation. One of our loyal dedicated JAACL'er, past president of the Puyallup Valley chapter, and City Councilman of Fife, Washington, Robt. Mizukami, a few years ago stated, "... those who would reap the blessings of freedom must support it; likewise, those who would reap the blessings of J.A.C.L. must support it."

DONATIONS

The Seattle Chapter gratefully acknowledges generous donations from Dr. Seiichi Higashida, 1607 South Hanford, in memory of Mrs. Higashida, who passed away recently, as well as from Mrs. F. Ogishima, 216 Fifth Avenue South, in memory of her husband, Mr. F. G. Ogishima, who passed away June 4th.
