JUNE 1966

SEATTLE AREA COMMITTEE HOPES TO FULFIL COMMITMENT TOWARDS $9,000 GOAL

The month of June has been set as the time to turn on the full steam for the land law repeal's financial drive. Seattle's commitment aims toward possible $9,000 goal. Dr. John Kanda, coordinator between the Washington chapters, and the local chairmen Jim Matsuoka and Toru Sakahara are most optimistic that the goal will be met. The movie project has already netted just over $3,000. Financial report for the variety show will be forthcoming during the regular board meeting and during the regular alien land law repeal meeting.

In addition to the Seattle's goal, the Puyallup Valley JACL and White River Valley

In addition to the Seattle's goal, the Puyallup Valley JACL and White River Valley Civic League have earlier in the year also committed themselves to goals. This is a team effort involving all Washingtonians and member chapter across the nation through National JACL

Headquarters in San Francisco.

Solicitation letters have already been mailed out locally and the responses have been most encouraging. Committee to repeal the hypocritical land law has initiated in the formation of State Committee for Senate Joint Resolution No. 20 embracing the entire state. The committee intends to leave no stones unturned short of financial capability.

Manpower and funds are necessary to conduct the campaign. Interested workers are invited to attend the land law repeal committee meetings held on second and fourth Friday of each month at the JACL office, 526 So. Jackson Street from 8 p.m.

The following is the first installment of donors list contributing more than $50 for the

Alien Land Law Repeal campaign:

H. S. Kawabe $500, Seattle Chapter $500, Tadashi Yamaguchi $300, Seattle Hotel and Apartment Association $250, Tak Kubota $215, Shosaku Suyama $200, Pacific Northwest District Council $191.81, Kiyo Motoda $150, Toru Sakahara $150, James Matsuoka $150, Kumeo Yoshinari (Chicago) $100, Sentaro Hashimoto $100, Albert Bonus $60, Orange County JACL Chapter, Calif. $50, Washington, D.C. Chapter $50, Philadelphia Chapter $50, Portland Chapter $50, George Iwasaki $50 (as of June 4, 1966).

JACL VARIETY SHOW CAPTIVATES AUDIENCE. Seattle Buddhist Church Auditorium was transformed May 30 into surprisingly delightful world of make-believe. Billed as the Seattle Chapter's first annual variety show, the stage was bedecked with fancy stage setting and lighting effect.

The program got off to a fast start with the melodic sounds on the electric organ with krs. Hide Shimomura. The pace was maintained to the triumphant final curtain as the concert by the Fuji Band including trio of vocalists seemingly brought the audiance right into the heart of the Tokyo night spot. The calibre and polish of all the performers were most professional.

Frank matteri, chairman of the show, was pleased with the response shown by the public which filled the auditorium to 70% capacity on this Memorial Day weekend. The fund derived for this year's show will be used for the land law repeal campaign.

The following is the list of performing artists on the program: organist—Hide Shimomura; hula dancers—Hats Higa, Linda Abe, anet Higa, Joanne Okumura; accordian—Hasae Obayashi; Hatsunekai dancers—Wendy Iwami, Barbara Kano, Marianne Harada, Marsha Toshi; Tahitian dances—Norma Fugami; folk singing and guitar—Julie Sakahara; kenbu (shigin)—Yokoyama, Fukeda; tap dancing—Carla Mizuta, Lynn Urakawa, Maxine Mizuta; vocal—Kathy Fugami (member of Burope bound Franklin Bel Cantos); shakuhachi (Shin Sofukai)—Kurimoto, Isomura, Furumoto, Nakahara; Japanese folk song by Akiko Yamanouchi; Banso by Keiko Kimura; koto solo—Keiko Kimura; baton twirl—Arlene Kato (State Jr. Champ); Japanese dance—Mrs. Miyoka Kihara and her student Shyla Taki; vocal and comedy sketch—George Kawachi; Fuji Band—Kay Hagimori (bandleader), Kiyoshi Jitodai (accordian), Bob Sakoda (guitar), Kaz Shoji (guitar) and vocalists Fred Sugita, Kaz Yokoyama, and Yuki Arinobu.

VARIETY SHOW (Cont'd from last page) Page 2 June 1966 The committee members from Adult JACL and Young Adult Group helping with the weekend

I recently had the opportunity to be a panelist at an in-service course "Teaching and the Disadvantaged" for the Tacoma public school teachers. The predominately caucasian Apartment Association 9250, Tak Kubota 9215, Shosaku Suyama barbunda bruora baredmun soniation

My assigned subject was the Japanese ethnic group, so I presented a brief glimpse of history in hopes of providing some insight of some problems encountered by Japanese.

I reviewed the varying degrees of prejudice and discrimination against the Japanese that prevailed for many years, taking form both in laws and behavior, both locally and nationally. I explored the effects of the immigration act; the prohibition of orientals from becoming naturalized citizens until 1952; the Washington state alien land law; the evacuation from the West Coast; and the damaging effects of stereotyping.

A few days later, I was pleased (and surprised) to receive individual thank you letters from the entire class. A great majority had expressed, in one form or another, appreciation for gaining better perspective of this minority group's problems. Many agreed to the effect that no one is free unless all of us are free, and that group stereotyping hurts the and all SW Alaska Street. Bob Elwood and His Combo will provide the music for the evening laubivibni
. There will be an admission price of 3 per completor friends and smarts.

However, my presentation did not change the views of some teachers that Americanism is not a matter of skin color or nationality, and that the denial of the opportunity to become naturalized citizens had damaging consequences. This can be seen from the following comments taken from a few letters: and old fliw noitaloossa gnilwod iesil elits 2 rejserD

"I do not feel that the Japanese here are treated as a minority group in the U.S.A. I realize that they were treated 'with difference' during the (U.S.A. Japanese) war, but that was due to the fact that there were so many Japanese aliens here faithful to their 'mother' 30 into surprisingly delightful world of make-believe. " . . . only those who would not become naturalized citizens and swear allegiance to one the American flag were sent back to Japan." I asw words out to marriado inotian american

Another made a comment that is not unfamilian: edt gol best ed [] by vode alsser ed " . . I fail to see this prejudice you speak about. I almost feel you are jumping on the band wagon of discriminated people, for when I compare your situation with that of the Negro and Indians, you have none."

This last comment has been said by others, in different ways, in different times. It's somewhat like saying there is no discrimination in hississippi, when compared to Johannesburg, South Africa. Rather than comparing the amount of existing discrimination between groups or places, we should compare it with how it is and should be, with an eye toward how much further we have to go.
